This Indenture entered into this 17th day of June 1776 between Joseph C. Crumpler of the first part and Edward Crumpler and Rachaba his wife of the second part Witnesseth that for and in consideration of the natural and affection which the party of the first part retains for the parties of the second part, and for the further consideration of one dollar paid to the party of the first part by the parties of the second part. The said Joseph C. Crumpler do grant sell the said Edward Crumpler and Rachaba his wife during their joint lives and the life of the survivor the right to occupy and possess the dwelling house and outbuildings and out house and garden situated in the tract of land hereby conveyed by said Edward Crumpler himself to the second part. And the further right to occupy and cultivate so much of the said tract of land as may be necessary for a cow and calf, and from time to time to be paid to the said J. C. Crumpler the first part to the extent of his last administration, executor and assign. And if he further according to the said J. C. Crumpler that of the said Edward Crumpler or Rachaba his wife prefer not to cultivate any land that they or either of them shall be furnished annually from the proceeds of the farm with three barrels of corn and three pounds of pepper. And the privileges and rights hereby granted are not to be assigned to any one nor are the premises to be occupied by others than the said Edward Crumpler and Rachaba Crumpler his wife and
