County of Hampshire: In the Clerk's Office December 2nd 1775.

The Ward of Bergham and Sale made by J. Kelly Drunk, a Special Commissioner to H. C. King, was this day revised and together with the Certificate thereof amended, admitted & recorded.

Edw. M. Williams, Ck.

We the undersigned do read the form belonging to the town of H. D. North, for the year 1775, on the following form and Constitution.

We have resolved to repair the fence, taking down and putting new rails on the portion not taken down in 1774 and repairing the balance of the fence, making a half a section around the same, excepting the portion fence on the camp. We have the use of Banks and Stables, and any sweeping about the premises. It is to be at the same in good former like manner. Care to be taken and the rails, the whole portion fence, persons and cattle, cattle and dogs, dogs, hogs, and the fence for the road to be provided by him. And further (for) if any fence made in any part to be paid as well as in above condition. All sweeping around shall be as for collecting and burning said crops, all sweep with remaining (for) such such change and expense shall be required.
