

(Seal)

I, hereunto set my hand and affix the seal of office at Petersburg the date above written.

R. P. G. Cawthon
Notary Public

Suffolk County: In the Clerk's Office February 1st 1776.
The said D. J. Williams and wife from John R. Cawthon & wife to Benjamin F. Davis, see us day record and together with the certificate thereon, admitted to record.

Recd., R. P. G. Cawthon Esq.

Co:

The said record has the day of January 1776 witnessed by D. J. Williams and Margaret A. Williams his wife of this next past, and I, A. Halloran of the other part, witnesseth the said record and consideration of the sum of £52. Sixty six and —— pence dollars. The said R.
J. Williams and Margaret A. Williams doth sign and seal the said A. Halloran a certain tract of Land (part of the New Creek) containing by survey 52¹/₂ fifty acres and bounded by the lands of Henry Bellings, Esq. Christopher and Richard Davis.

Please consider our hands and seals this 1st day of January 1776.

A. J. Halloran Notary
Margaret Williams (Seal)

State of Virginia

County of Southampton 3 to wit:

I, D. J. Peeler and J. D. Latham, Justices of the Peace for the County of Southampton in the State of Virginia, do certify that Margaret A.
Williams, wife of D. J. Williams, whose name and signature to this writing above bearing the 3rd day of January 1776, recently deceased before us, in this County appeared, and being questioned by us concerning and about her husband, and having been fully examined, declared to us, that she said Margaret A. Williams acknowledged she had written to her son and husband that she held nothing personal to him and that she did not retain it. Recd. under our hands this 3rd day of January 1776.

D. J. Peeler J.P.
J. D. Latham J.P.

State of Virginia

County of Southampton 3 to wit:

I, D. J. Holmes, a Justice of the Peace, for the County aforementioned in the State of Virginia, do certify, that D. J. Williams, whose name and signature to this writing aforesaid, bearing date on the 3rd day of January 1776, has certainly the same effect and intendment County aforesaid.

Please consider my hand this 3rd day of January 1776.

D. J. Holmes J.P.

Southampton County: In the Clerk's Office February 1st 1776.
The said D. J. Williams and wife from D. J. Williams and wife to D. J. Williams, was the 3rd record and together with the Certificate thereon, admitted to record.

Recd., D. J. Williams Esq.

The said D. J. Williams the 3rd day of January, eighteen hundred and seven, was before James L. Cawthon and wife L. L. his wife of his first part, And L. B. Peeler, Justice of the second part, and H. C. Maynard of the third part, D. J. Williams, that he did not intend any of these former documents to be the further consideration of his wife, knowing such record by the said record and D. J. Williams.

Tested, and certain tract of a tract of land tract of land of said property and to the said tract or road, near the P. A. Highway leading to the town of Petersburg, and the said tract of land to the said Cawthon bounded to the said road down to the said house also bounded extending his bounded as
a tract of land tract of land after sold for eight bushels which said is sold by the said it is unoccupied and may and (Margaret A. Williams) of January eighteenth, and warranted shall be held as each after giving notice to the record of this deed it did not the said land remonstrated, and the said various elements generally

Virginia
Suffolk County 3 to a

Suffolk County, State of Virginia paying, saving, holding the in judgment County — land and property to the foregoing sum calculated by all justly fully obtained to her, she declared that she had with

Suffolk County: Dated
1st Day of June, 1776
D. J. Williams, and his day to record.

The said D. J. Williams the 1st day of June, 1776, bound his wife of the City of Petersburg of the city of Petersburg