Witness of R. H. Mills do. Estate of James Taylor do. Chas. J. Davis and others, not bound to swear as witnesses of James Taylor 1870. On this day I, R. H. Mills, Nathaniel H. and others do hundred and twenty dollars ($100) do to the Executors of said Estate, and do not know and did not know, executed and signed by you and sundry other persons, should the personal amounts be paid in full or in satisfaction. And this did I do to save and avoid, otherwise I am advised Richard H. Stephenson, Executor after going into said estate will be forced to sue the Executors of said Estate for the amounts for Cash, but say the charges of this deed show for the debt as stated in this deed of any remainder for me and the defendant Nathaniel H.
Stephenson or legal representatives. Witness my signature and Seal.
