

upon all the crops of Cotton, Corn & fodder he may produce during the year 1876, or may be interested in. The party of the second part by this writing also creates a lien upon, and does make secure, Richard H. Raymond, whereby we have bound ourselves our names and effects our seals the 30th day of November 1876.

W. H. Raymond
J. C. Hillier

Richard H. Raymond
J. C. Hillier

(Seal)
(Seal)

Southampton County. In the Clerk's Office April 21st 1876.

This Agreement between Richard H. Raymond and J. C. Hillier and the party named by the ends of R. H. Raymond and J. C. Hillier, the two subscribing witnesses, and admitted to record.

Teste, W. H. Edwards Ck.

This Agreement made and entered into this 17th day of January 1876, between J. C. Hillier of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia, of the first part, and J. C. Hillier of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia, of the second part, whereof the said J. C. Hillier has advanced to the party of the first part, and agreed to advance money and supplies, in the following manner, to wit: The party of the second part, for which the party of the first part, holds note dated 1st January 1876, also five hundred pounds within that term, ten 100, extra flour, one sheep for fifteen

Co. & deliv.
1. J. C. Hillier

Guano, and supplies in goods to the amount of twenty five dollars, all of said advances are to be well kept the said J. C. Hillier to carry on his agricultural operations in the said County of Southampton for the year 1876. And he secures the parties of the second part, the party of the first part, by this writing creates a lien upon all the crops of Cotton, Corn & fodder he may produce during the year 1876, or may be interested in, on the farm upon which he now resides, and the said farm the party of the second part, by this writing also creates a lien upon the following property, to wit: One young Co. mixed breed, white, and black mare and one black mare. The party of the second part also creates a lien upon the above mentioned property to secure (after said J. C. Hillier has paid) advanced notes he notes due him by said J. C. Hillier amounting to eleven one hundred dollars. The party of the first part agrees to deliver to said J. C. Hillier the said crops as fast as they are harvested, and also all the other property mentioned of making by the 30th day of November 1876, to sell to the said party of the first part, and pay off said advances. In testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names and affix our seals this 17th day of January 1876.

Witness
R. H. Raymond
J. C. Hillier

J. C. Hillier
R. H. Raymond

(Seal)
(Seal)

Southampton County. In the Clerk's Office April 21st 1876.

This Agreement between J. C. Hillier and J. C. Hillier and the party named by the ends of R. H. Raymond and J. C. Hillier, the two subscribing witnesses, and admitted to record.

Teste, W. H. Edwards Ck.

This Agreement made and entered into this 17th day of January 1876, between J. C. Hillier of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia, of the first part, and J. C. Hillier of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia, of the second part, whereof the said J. C. Hillier has advanced to the party of the first part, and agreed to advance money and supplies, in the following manner, to wit: The party of the second part, for which the party of the first part, holds note dated 1st January 1876, also five hundred pounds within that term, ten 100, extra flour, one sheep for fifteen

Guano, and supplies in goods to the amount of twenty five dollars, all of said advances are to be well kept the said J. C. Hillier to carry on his agricultural operations in the said County of Southampton for the year 1876. And he secures the parties of the second part, the party of the first part, by this writing creates a lien upon all the crops of Cotton, Corn & fodder he may produce during the year 1876, or may be interested in, on the farm upon which he now resides, and the said farm the party of the second part, by this writing also creates a lien upon the following property, to wit: One young Co. mixed breed, white, and black mare and one black mare. The party of the second part also creates a lien upon the above mentioned property to secure (after said J. C. Hillier has paid) advanced notes he notes due him by said J. C. Hillier amounting to eleven one hundred dollars. The party of the first part agrees to deliver to said J. C. Hillier the said crops as fast as they are harvested, and also all the other property mentioned of making by the 30th day of November 1876, to sell to the said party of the first part, and pay off said advances. In testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names and affix our seals this 17th day of January 1876.

Southampton County.
This Agreement between J. C. Hillier and J. C. Hillier and the party named by the ends of R. H. Raymond and J. C. Hillier, the two subscribing witnesses, and admitted to record.

This Agreement made and entered into this 17th day of January 1876, between J. C. Hillier of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia, of the first part, and J. C. Hillier of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia, of the second part, whereof the said J. C. Hillier has advanced to the party of the first part, and agreed to advance money and supplies, in the following manner, to wit: The party of the second part, for which the party of the first part, holds note dated 1st January 1876, also five hundred pounds within that term, ten 100, extra flour, one sheep for fifteen

Co. & deliv.
1. J. C. Hillier

Guano, and supplies in goods to the amount of twenty five dollars, all of said advances are to be well kept the said J. C. Hillier to carry on his agricultural operations in the said County of Southampton for the year 1876. And he secures the parties of the second part, the party of the first part, by this writing creates a lien upon all the crops of Cotton, Corn & fodder he may produce during the year 1876, or may be interested in, on the farm upon which he now resides, and the said farm the party of the second part, by this writing also creates a lien upon the following property, to wit: One young Co. mixed breed, white, and black mare and one black mare. The party of the second part also creates a lien upon the above mentioned property to secure (after said J. C. Hillier has paid) advanced notes he notes due him by said J. C. Hillier amounting to eleven one hundred dollars. The party of the first part agrees to deliver to said J. C. Hillier the said crops as fast as they are harvested, and also all the other property mentioned of making by the 30th day of November 1876, to sell to the said party of the first part, and pay off said advances. In testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names and affix our seals this 17th day of January 1876.