I, J. N. Deane, a Justice of the Peace for the County of South in the State of Virginia, do hereby certify that David Daugherty, whose name is signed to the within, having filed on the 16th day of November 1876, acknowledged the same before me, for my County aforesaid. Given under my hand this 16th day of November, 1876.

J. N. Deane J. P.

Southampton County, On the 16th day of May 1876.

Wm. Daugherty, Sheriff of Southampton County, to W. C. Griffin, Sheriff, for the Sheriff of Southampton County, to wit: the 16th day of May 1876.

Wm. Daugherty Sheriff.

Now all men by these presents that I, Wm. Daugherty, of the City of Petersburg, in the State of Virginia, being a householder and head of a family in said City, do hereby declare my intention to claim and do hereby claim the benefit of a homestead as provided for by the Constitution of the State of Virginia and the Act of the General Assembly of said State passed in pursuance thereof and approved June 29th 1876 and the Act of said General Assembly approved July 11th 1876 supplementing to the Act aforesaid and all Acts passed by the Congress of the United States giving protection to said homestead acts: and do hereby claim as such homestead the following property to wit: a certain tract or parcel of land lying, being and situate in Southampton County, Virginia, near Danversville and known as "Boggs' land" bounded by and adjoining the lands of J. D. Henson, James Deane and J. D. Henson and situated by the title of the value of two thousand dollars and which amount is also made by J. D. Henson and J. D. Henson as well as appears by paper recorded in this county, to be secured with this deed as a part thereof: the said parcel or tract of land now depicted to me by the last will and testament of my dear father James Deane which was admitted to probate by the Court of Southampton County, referred to which is hereby made for a fuller description of the same.

Witness the following signature and seal this 15th day of May 1876.
