

Witness
J. J. Harris
J. J. Williams

Henry C. ^{1st} State
Bond

Witness County: In the Clerk's Office, May 2^d 1876.
The Oath of Oath, from Henry C. Bond to J. J. Williams, Sworn for the benefit of James H. Corbin, was this day received and sworn by the oath of J. J. Harris and J. J. Williams, the two subscribing witnesses, sworn and admitted to receive.
Date, McDonald Co.

This Oath made this 1st day of May, A.D. 1876, between J. J. Williams, the grantor, of the first part, and J. J. Williams, Sworn for the benefit of James H. Corbin, the first part, and the consideration of one dollar in hand, paid to J. J. Williams, of the first part, by J. J. Williams, Sworn for the benefit of James H. Corbin, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the said J. J. Williams, Sworn for the benefit of James H. Corbin, has entire crop of Cotton, Corn, fodder, peas, &c. that he may hereafter this year and the farm where he resides, and located at the New River place. Not to be secured a note of one hundred and eighty on dollars and thirty five cents due to J. J. Williams and said note bearing date July 1st 1876. Signed under my hand and seal this 1st day of May, A.D. 1876.
Witness
J. J. Harris
J. J. Williams

Witness County: In the Clerk's Office, June 1st 1876.
The Oath of Oath, from J. J. Williams to J. J. Williams, Sworn for the benefit of James H. Corbin, was this day received and sworn by the oath of J. J. Harris and J. J. Williams, the two subscribing witnesses, sworn and admitted to receive.
Date, McDonald Co.

This Oath made this 1st day of May, A.D. 1876, between J. J. Williams, the
grantor, of the first part, and J. J. Williams, Sworn for the benefit of James H. Corbin,
the first part, and the consideration of one dollar in hand, paid to J. J. Williams, of
the first part, by J. J. Williams, Sworn for the benefit of James H. Corbin, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the said J. J. Williams, Sworn for the benefit of James H. Corbin, has entire crop of Cotton, Corn, fodder, peas, &c. that he may
hereafter this year and the farm where he resides, and located at the New River place. Not to be secured a note of one hundred and eighty on dollars and thirty five cents due to J. J. Williams and said note bearing date of this day.
Signed under my hand and seal this 1st day of May, A.D. 1876.
Witness
J. J. Harris
J. J. Williams

Witness County: In the Clerk's Office, June 1st 1876.
The Oath of Oath, from J. J. Williams to J. J. Williams, Sworn for the benefit of James H. Corbin, was this day received and sworn by the oath of J. J. Harris and J. J. Williams, the two subscribing witnesses, sworn and admitted to receive.
Date, McDonald Co.

This Oath made this second part, all of the
consideration of the first
part and every such note
made when James H. Corbin
County of Southampton
as follows of the first part
on the 1st day of May, 1876,
the first receipt, written
hand and office one

State of Virginia
Southampton }
of the first part, the Co
where named and signed and acknowledged the 1st day of April, 1876.

Witness County:
This Oath of Virginia was this day received and

This Oath made this
second part, all of the
consideration of the first
part and every such note
made when James H. Corbin
County of Southampton
as follows of the first part
on the 1st day of May, 1876,
the first receipt, written
hand and office one

State of Virginia
Southampton }
a Justice of the Peace for County, where named on December 15th and signed
James H. Corbin