Whereas David Cunningham by deed executed on the 1st day of March 1875, did convey to H. Edwards, as trustee, a certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in the County of Southampton, adjoining the lands of the State of Delaware, do and others containing one hundred and twenty six and two thirds acres more or less, and certain personal property in said deed named and described, in trust to secure the payment of a debt of four hundred and twenty and five dollars due James C. Jones. And on the 11th day of March 1875 the said David Cunningham executed another deed conveying to Edward J. Clements as trustee, a certain tract or parcel of land containing 106<sup>2</sup>/<sub>3</sub> acres more or less, (being the same tract or parcel of land above mentioned and described) and certain personal property therein named and described, to secure the payment of another debt due the said James C. Jones of four hundred dollars. And whereas since the execution of the said deeds above referred to the debt herein referred to has been fully paid off and discharged as A. J. Stephenson, Executor of the C. Jones do hereby acknowledges. And the said David Cunningham during the life of the land and other property conveyed by the said deeds above referred to is shared and conveyed to him. Therefore the said H. Edwards and Edward J. Clements do and each of them do hereby submit to the said David Cunningham with good warranty, all their and each of their claims upon the said land and personal property conveyed, by and with the consent of the said A. J. Stephenson, Executor of James C. Jones do hereby signified by his signing these presents.
