

That said Coll made this 25th day of November in the year and thousand eight hundred and thirty six, before Henry W. Wells, Administrator to him and with the said names of John Coll deceased, of the first part, and Richard P. S. Coll of the other part, witnesses in person showed said Coll his letter, bearing the title above and copy of a certain deed after lying in that (Sevier) County - and showed the said John Coll with, by his last will and testament which was duly recorded in the Clerk's office of said County on the 15th day of October Anno Domini 1836, and said John Coll thereupon agreed, to sell, at their direction, the tract of land about the said station and including farmstead at the site of St. Louis, as first said branch of the main road in the said last will and testament as executor qualified as such, for and to be sold and conveyed said Coll widow of the said first said qualified as Administrator with the will annexed, on the said 25th day of October 1836, just above the said Thompson Anne Coll has since intermarried with the said Henry W. Wells, who died on the 27th day of December A.D. 1836, jointly as Administrator the said land was sold with the will annexed of the said John Coll deceased, and returned the said Thompson Anne Coll did, before her intermarriage with the said Henry W. Wells, in the service of the aforesaid legatee, conferred on her by the said last will and testament, sell, grant and convey with children R. Coll a portion of the said tract of land about the said farmstead as appears of the date of A.D. 1836, that in any, certain, tendency for said tract of land marked off and indicated by fences with no fence returned in the deed from the said Thompson Anne Coll to her and her H. Coll, marked in the deed office of the Sevier County of said County, on the 25th day of A.D. 1836, and whereof the said Henry W. Wells Administrator did and returned the said Henry M. Burt. Almonred and as said was 19. of which he is the owner of the above-mentioned land, he said last will and testament, burgess and sold with the said Nicholas P. Coll the whole of the remainder of the said tract of land devised by the said John Coll to be sold together with over returned to itself.

Now the said Christopher Chapin the said Henry M. Burt administrators at law of the said deceased of the said Coll deceased, for and in consideration of the sum of two thousand dollars in hand paid to being by the said Nicholas P. Coll, the sum of which said sum is hereby acknowledged, with interest and conveyance the said deceased, with the said Nicholas P. Coll all of the remainder of the said tract of land devised by the said John Coll, which said remainder is supposed to contain four hundred and thirty five acres and a half, and is bounded as follows, to wit: by the lands of John P. Coll (the said Henry M. Burt) and land by the Balthasar road, and back by the lands of H. Rathbone, Almonred and the half by the Balthasar road, to the said Nicholas P. Coll with his heirs forever.

water and salt.
M. M. Cullen
1892

Switzerland, Canty. In Old Clerk's Office November 25th 1891.
This Card of Request had been forwarded to Mr. Butler, Acting U. S. Marshal was this day received and acknowledged by said Butler to be his act and deed and advised to proceed.

Inst, Washburne Co. Co.

6.9
 Creek of Delaware measured
 Page 321
 Dead Creek
 in the year 1882

Virginia
County of Shenandoah
Notary Public
County Court of Shenandoah Nichols & Co. for which this name was being fully explained they had willingly done with the things

Southampton County: This Order of Court for benefit of said estate and with the assent of