

being and being examined by me personally and ap[er] from her said husband and bearing the writing aforesaid fully explained to her, she then said Sister J. She returned to the said husband to the best of her knowledge and belief that she had willingly executed the deed and that not with a reluctant will.

And under my hand this 23rd day of December 1876.

Wm. H. Tyler

County Judge in Chancery

Smithampton County. In the Clerk's Office. December 23rd 1876.

This Deed of Mortgage and sale from Samuel Davis wife to William C. Haggard, one day arrived and with the certificate thereof annexed, arrived to record.

Attest, J. H. Edwards Clk.

Emr

This Deed made this 1st day of January 1877 between George H. Stephenson of the one part and James Hinds of the other part, all of the County of Smithampton and State of Virginia, witnesses that in consideration of the sum of two hundred and twenty five dollars ($250) the said George H. Stephenson hath granted unto the said James Hinds and his heirs forever, one certain tract or parcel of land containing thirty acres more or less, bounded on the north by David Hill Swampy road, by the south line by James H. Stephenson to the Morris road, divided by Richard H. Stephenson, bounded by Elizabeth Davis. The aforesaid George H. Stephenson does hereby acknowledge the receipt and title to the aforesaid tract or parcel of land.

And under my hand and seal this 1st day of January 1877.

Geo. H. Stephenson Clerk

Smithampton County Clerk.

This day personally appeared before me, W. H. Haggard, a Justice of the Peace for the County aforesaid, George H. Stephenson, whose name is signed to the deed above bearing date January 1st 1877 and acknowledged the same to be his act and deed.

And under my hand this 1st day of January 1877.

W. H. Haggard J. P.

Smithampton County. In the Clerk's Office. January 2nd 1877.

This Deed of Mortgage and sale from Geo. H. Stephenson to James Hinds, one day arrived and with the certificate thereof annexed, arrived to record.

Attest, J. H. Edwards Clk.

Emr

This Deed made this 1st day of January in the year 1877 between John Clay of the one part, and Richard C. Clayton, brother of the above part, witnesses that the said John Clay hath granted unto the said Richard C. Clayton the following property, all of my wife of one, father, juvenile, color and beauty; also the following: her hair, head of hair, including a cyst of hair and about fifty head of hair including nose and eye, her coat and white, she trust to receive the payment of the following named moneys: first her lands due to J. H. Haggard and J. H. Haggard, secondly five dollars from J. H. Haggard, also a credit of one hundred and 99 dollars, bearing date of 31st of March 1876 with a credit of one hundred and 99 dollars from J. H. Haggard, also a credit of one hundred and 99 dollars from J. H. Haggard, and the other debt. J. H. Haggard for her hundred and fifty dollars, bearing date of Aug. 1876. After the payment of the above named moneys.

And under my hand and seal this 2nd day of January 1877.

the Justice R. H. Haggard a all of my wife and

Smithampton County
This Deed of Mortgage
and sale from J. H. Haggard
to J. H. Haggard
by said Henry to be to be

Emr. This Deed made this and seventy four dollars seventy five cents and seventy five cents
and fifty dollars said
said the said Justice Haggard, secondly
seventy five cents
seventy five cents
under my hand and seal
this 2nd day of Jan

Attest:
R. H. Haggard
J. H. Haggard

Smithampton County

State of Virginia do
and Samuel and the
and the 2nd day of Jan
Emr

Smithampton County

State of Virginia do
are stated to be the appeared before me in from her husband and Henry H. Haggard
and willingly executed
Emr

Smithampton County
This Deed of Mortgage
and sale from J. H. Haggard
to J. H. Haggard