

known as the Mustard Yellow tract, adjoining the lands of the late Col. Robert Henry, James James and others, and containing the hundred and sixty five acres, more or less, to him and his heirs forever. Witness our hands and seals this 25th day of November 1794.

John C. Griffin
James Griffin

State of Virginia
County of Southampt. 3 to wit:

This day personally appeared before us Thos. B. Nelson and Thos. B. Nelson Justices of the Peace in and for the County and State aforesaid, John C. Griffin wife of John C. Griffin whose name is signed to the writing here annexed, having this 25th day of November 1794, and being sworn to by us, and upon oath from her husband, acknowledged the same to be her act and deed, and that she will be strict in the observance of the same, this 25th day of November 1794.

Thos. B. Nelson
Thos. B. Nelson

State of Virginia
County of Southampt. 3 to wit:

This day personally appeared before us Thos. B. Nelson a Justice of the Peace in and for the County aforesaid, John C. Griffin whose name is signed to the writing here annexed, acknowledged the same to be his act and deed. Witness our hands this 25th day of November 1794.

Thos. B. Nelson

Southampt. County: In the Clerk's Office December 29th 1794.
This Deed of Conveyance made from John C. Griffin wife to Thos. B. Nelson, and the long and short of the contents thereof, and as to the day of March 1795, the required taxes having been paid, was returned to us.

Thos. B. Nelson

Comes

This Deed made the 25th day of November 1794, between John C. Griffin and Thos. B. Nelson wife of the first party, and Richard W. James of the second party, all of the County of Southampt., witnesses that in and in consideration of the sum of one hundred and thirty dollars, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the parties of the first part did grant unto the party of the second part, at right title and without any other price or purchase of land lying in the County of Southampt. and between the said John C. Griffin and Thos. B. Nelson adjoining the lands of the late Col. Robert Henry, James James and others, and containing the hundred and eighty three acres, more or less, to him and his heirs forever. Witness our hands and seals this 25th day of November 1794.

John C. Griffin
James Griffin

State of Virginia
County of Southampt. 3 to wit:

This day personally appeared before us Thos. B. Nelson and Thos. B. Nelson Justices of the Peace in and for the County and State aforesaid, John C. Griffin wife of John C. Griffin whose name is signed to the writing here annexed, having this 25th day of November 1794, and being sworn to by us, and upon oath from her husband, acknowledged the same to be her act and deed, and that she will be strict in the observance of the same, this 25th day of November 1794.

Thos. B. Nelson
Thos. B. Nelson

State of Virginia
County of Southampt.

Justice of the Peace
to the writing here

Southampt. Co.
This Deed of Conveyance made from John C. Griffin wife to Thos. B. Nelson, and the long and short of the contents thereof, and as to the day of March 1795, the required taxes having been paid, was returned to us.

Comes This Deed made from John C. Griffin wife to Thos. B. Nelson, and the long and short of the contents thereof, and as to the day of March 1795, the required taxes having been paid, was returned to us.

State of Virginia
County of Southampt.

Justice of the Peace
to the writing here

Southampt. Co.
This Deed of Conveyance made from John C. Griffin wife to Thos. B. Nelson, and the long and short of the contents thereof, and as to the day of March 1795, the required taxes having been paid, was returned to us.

State of Virginia
County of Southampt.

Justice of the Peace
to the writing here

Southampt. Co.