State of Virginia

Southampton County.

Whereas H. A. Seath & Co., J. L. Seaboard and Jas. R. Darden have advanced with H. A. Merrill of Southampton County Virginia the sum of Forty Five Dollars, which is evidenced by three notes, viz. one note to H. A. Seath & Co., dated May 26th 1877, for Fifty Two Dollars; one note to J. L. Seaboard dated May 26th 1877, for Six Five Dollars, and one note to Jas. R. Darden dated May 26th 1877, for Sixty Two Dollars to enable the said H. A. Merrill to carry on his farming operations and the lands owned by George H. Darden for the year of 1877. And therefore, in consideration of the sum advanced and the further consideration of one dollar paid to the said H. A. Merrill by H. A. Seath & Co., J. L. Seaboard and Jas. R. Darden, the said H. A. Merrill hereby covenants and agrees that the said advanced shall constitute a lien upon all the crops of every description growing and to be harvested and grown by the said H. A. Merrill upon the said lands during the year of 1877. And the said H. A. Merrill has sold unto the said H. A. Seath & Co., J. L. Seaboard and Jas. R. Darden the following personal and viz. one dark bay horse, one star, east one stall, eight dogs and hounds, two dark reds, household and kitchen furniture and farming implements to hold for the following purposes to wit: H. A. Seath & Co. shall have the said H. A. Merrill shall pay on or before the 1st day of December to pay the said debt that the said H. A. Seath & Co., J. L. Seaboard and Jas. R. Darden shall after ten days advertisement at three public places in said county, sell all the property, horses, dogs, for cash and out of the proceeds pay said debts without and cash and balance of such proceeds pay over to the said H. A. Merrill or his assignee.

Witness my hand this 26th day of May 1877.
