

inward as Williams is back and which C. N. Williams now owns, and upon my above land we said State and the cultivation of which the said advance is made shall be jointly or at long continued. And the said party of the second part hereby agree that he has given no previous loan and said crops. Shall the said party of the second pay the note mentioned on or before maturity, thus the agreement is to be null and void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect. Witness our signatures and seals the day and year first above written.

Witness my hand
 C. N. Williams

(Seal)
 (Seal)

Virginia,

County of Southampton I to wit.

I, Stephen C. Ridley, a Justice of the Peace, for the County of said, and the State of Virginia, do certify that C. N. Williams whose name is signed to the foregoing writing, bearing date on the 12th day of May 1877, has acknowledged the same before me.

Witness under my hand this 18th day of June 1877.

Stephen C. Ridley J.P.

Southampton County, In the Clerk's Office June 25th 1877.

This Writing or Agreement between C. N. Williams and Allison C. Edwards, creating a lien on the crops of the said C. N. Williams for money or, advance, was viewed and together with the certificate thereof, admitted to record.
 Attest, M. Edwards C. C.

On This Agreement made and entered into the 26th day of June 1877, between C. C. Howell rec., of the first part and John S. Morris of the second, containing that advance, the said Jas. S. Morris is engaged in the cultivation of the said and it is deemed to obtain supplies of the said C. C. Howell rec., and the said C. C. Howell rec., having agreed to furnish said supplies and in consideration of the above money or, advance, the said Jas. S. Morris doth grant unto the said C. C.
 Howell rec., a lien to the amount of Forty Dollars on his cotton interest on all the crops raised on the land which he may cultivate this year 1877.

Witness the following Signatures.

Witness:

C. C. Howell rec.,
 Jas. S. Morris

Southampton Co., to wit.

Personally appeared before me, A. S. Torrance, a Justice of the Peace, C. C. Howell rec., and Jas. S. Morris and acknowledged the above agreement, in my County of said.

Witness under my hand the 26th day of June A. D., 1877.
 A. S. Torrance J.P.

Southampton County, In the Clerk's Office June 25th 1877.

This Writing or Agreement between Jas. S. Morris and C. C. Howell rec., creating a lien on the crops of the said Jas. S. Morris for money or, advance, was viewed and together with the certificate thereof, admitted to record.

Attest,

M. Edwards C. C.