

before this of the County of Southampton in the State of Va. entered, that we consideration of the sum of ten hundred dollars in hand paid by the said Joshua Rivett to the said Samuel Williams the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the said Samuel Williams do grant, bargain, sell and convey absolutely and without any reserve whatsoever to the said Joshua Rivett the following personal property, to wit: one ad &c. and warts, one suit and twenty furs, household and kitchen furniture, two carts and wheels and my robust crop of corn, fodder and cotton, containing in the said Joshua Rivett's land, all of the said property to be delivered to the said Joshua Rivett whatever he shall call for it, and demand of. This contract is at all respects to be construed as an actual and absolute bill of sale, and not as a mere loan, mortgage or other like writing, and the whole right, title and interest in the said property is hereby conveyed without reserve to the said Samuel Williams - Covenanted that he will not move or carry the said property or any part thereof, from the place at which it now is, until the same has been discharged by the said Joshua Rivett, without the consent of the said Joshua R.
Rivett. Witness my signature and seal this 11th day of May A.D., 1877.
Samuel Williams (Seal)

This Bond made this 16th day of July A.D., 1877, between Hardy Niles the grantor of the first part and J. N. Edwards, Justice of the same part, witnesseth that for and in consideration of one dollar in hand paid to Hardy Niles of the first part by J. N. Edwards, Justice, of the second part, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the said Hardy Niles doth grant unto the said J. N. Edwards, Justice, his entire crop of cotton, corn, fodder, furs &c., that he may produce this year and the year whereon he wishes and chooses as the Thomas place in which he owns a note of ten hundred dollars due to Jas. M. Corbitt and said note bearing date July 1st 1877.

Given under my hand and seal this 16th day of July A.D., 1877.
