On the 21st of Dec. made the 20th day of April in the year our command left home about 6 A.M. and during several hours visited the Seal-beds on the first part and during the rest of the day, along Edwards and Henry Bay, through the dense spruce forest along some of the strand, but without finding any coal, and returned

Colon James O'Brien had many early children a son and daughter, Charles and Cecilia one of the second born, afterwards, and in continuation of the said of five first children, the said P. H. Bodshaw died grand with the said son of William O'Brien and Mary O'By, several of whom, with several country, of the
