

public demand, of the said County and State, know you, that the said Nathaniel Crompton, the party of the first part, has a share present, in in consideration of the acquiring said and interest in, does give & con-vise his right forever to & cultivating a one horse on the second part claiming, which is more than, three barrels of corn and seven bushels which should be left to third and the survivor of the two in the agreement and into first barrel & Crompton and the late John C. Crompton divided, when the second part felt in his behalf of J. C. Crompton, the said part, being in possession of Crompton & Crompton and the third part willing to third and interest and found that, how agreed and the said fourth to furnish the said third three barrels of corn and seven of fodder annually to the said Nathaniel Crompton of the first part, the the survivor of the two, named in the agreement between J. C. Crompton and the late Edward Crompton deceased, and Nathaniel Crompton of the first part to their present and in consideration of receiving the said three barrels of corn and seven bushels of fodder annually, found the said third part of the said second part. The said first part as a service, where and from give claim as to cultivating a one horse on the second part or any other service or service for her. She by this present relinquishing the right exclusive, the claiming to receive six barrels of corn and seven bushels annually which was a share left to third or the survivor of the two in the agreement first made and entered into between J. C. Crompton and the late Edward Crompton, Nathaniel Crompton of the first part to their present for and in consideration of receiving the said land for potato, which land to be situated on the west side of the road and to have the chimney and furnace, which consider glass part in of house on the west side of the road made of brick, to be a road to live, with how agreed to relinquish his right in all the building of the late including the house with chimney in middle the agreeing to have allowed her sufficient terms for her, the following and shall never be furnished to her for her service house and Crompton of the second part to their present for her and in consideration of the said first part to their present relinquishing the right altogether in the first and building thereon as before named and all in the house, do not here agree to furnish the said Nathaniel Crompton of the first part to their present the first named the said land to be situated as before said and agree to repair the chimney and service and windows of the house named here for the benefit of Nathaniel Crompton of the first part to their present. The said Crompton of the first part to their present to have in consideration of Nathaniel Crompton relinquishing his right to the first named building mentioned, did agree to give the said Nathaniel Crompton the fourth part of the first part to their present, sufficient fire wood, for the use of the said fourth part, as above, which party to their present have furnished the said fourth and said that the 1st day of October in the year of our Lord, in the year eight hundred and seventy second, 1797.

Augustus Crampton
Thos. J. Whitford

Mahalia <sup>best</sup> & Crawford Cordy <sup>and</sup> <sup>son</sup> & C. Whitfield x Southampton County, in the Circuit Office November 30th 1877.

This agreement between Martha C. Campbell and Corry C. Whitwell was this day, and Whitfield, she was to Whitfield to be

62. These all were his and State of Mass. of the head of a large farm, long sold
and in which a
farm long sold
for $5000, bought at $300. Some 15
acres raised valued at $300. a household which does not of 1862. This

+ Searchwarrant
That Died of Edwards to be

Ex. Know all men first hand and claim I hold a dollar - some to
by me in year

+
 The Assignments
 acknowledged by

Ex. This Quil was the first proc<sup>d</sup> and of Smith's purchase.
We saw it on the
which he has been hardly coming out in and thought of in certain days of March April, May
June, <sup>all of the month</sup> August, & would be benefit and use of