

Dorchester

County with General assent, all of their eight. With each intent to a certain tract or parcel of land, containing eighty acres more or less, situate in the land called James Drury's one acre, bounded by the lands of G. M. Seaman, Steven Drury, James P. Williams, Col. and others, according the run of the Rumbling River and Branch, during the life of the said James Drury and Margaret A. Drury his wife. The said Thaddeus Seaman furthermore obligates to give up to the said James Drury and Margaret A. Drury his wife or either of them, the fruit of all orchard growing on the said tract of land, containing forty acres of apples, twenty other kinds, also a quantity of full timber of a kind of small timber, to the said James Drury & C. S. Col. and one in the hands of the said D. Seaman, subscriber of the said D. S. Col. and for a money consideration before-mentioned, James Drury and his wife concur that they have the right to convey the said tract of land, that they have due regard to encumber the said land, that they shall have quiet enjoyment of the said land, free from all encumbrances, and that James Drury and Margaret A. Drury his wife, parties of the first part, will execute such further appearance of the said land as may be demanded.

Behold the following signatures and seals:

James P. Drury
John G. Drury
Margaret A. Drury

Belore, the said
Overall I. Stell, held of land, to right acre more J. Williams, who Drury and his execute his & his
of all rights down
of his office, all have a right to execute his seal
full form all in
of the first four months.

I. Stell

State of Virginia,
County of Southampton, to wit:

I, M. D. Seeler, a Notary for the County, whose name I signed to the within writing, bearing date on the 15th day of September 1777, have acknowledged the same before me in my County of Southampton.

Given under my hand the 15th day of September 1777

M. D. Seeler, N.S.

State of Virginia.

County of Southampton, to wit:

I, McLockfoot and H. S. Seeler Subnot for the County of Southampton in the State of Virginia, do certify that James A. Drury, the wife of James Drury above named, appeared to the writing bearing date on the 15th day of September 1777, personally appeared before me in this County of Southampton, and being examined by me, freely and clearly from her best knowledge and memory, did declare, that she had sold and delivered the said tract of land, to the said James Drury, and that she had willingly executed the same, and that she would execute the same, if required.

Given under our hands the 15th day of September 1777

H. S. Seeler, N.S.
M. D. Seeler, N.S.

Southampton County in the State of Virginia 15th day of September 1777
The said James Drury and wife gave James Drury wife to G. D. Seeler Subnot as the day named and together with the certificate above annexed, were then to record.

State, Southampton Co.

The said G. D. Seeler made the 3rd day of October in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy seven, before him, Thaddeus D. Seeler and Martha his wife, his wife of the said tract and executed I. Stell of the sum of one thousand dollars, that in consideration of the sum of One Thousand Dollars,

State of Virginia
County of Southampton

afforded, in so to sign'd to the
has acknowledged

State of Virginia
County of Southampton

for the County of Southampton
writing, bearing a date as we do
from her best and honest
and Drury Drury
that she had no

1777

Southampton Co.
15th Day of Octo
State, and has day
acknowledged to record

This Deed made
seventy seven (1777)
in the year
one thousand seven hundred and seventy seven days, the day when the