I hereby certify that an affidavit is made by the wife of William H. Parker, and James C. Parker, and the wife of William C. Gentry and Richard Williams, and the wife of the said Williams and John D. Scott, and on the part of the husband belonging to the wife of John D. Scott, it being the same tract of land on which Thomas & Estate and J. M.
Cook now reside, together with all the improvements therin and appurtenances thereunto, to have and to hold the aforesaid tract of land to him the aforesaid affidavit trustee, his heirs and assigns forever. In Trust to receive to him the payment of one Dolar to the sum of one hundred and fifteen just and undevolved, bearing date on the 30th day of June 1878, and payable to the said John D. Scott, with interest, six months after date, signed by the said Thomas & Cook and sealed with his wax. And the said party of the first part covenes not that should they make default and fail to pay the aforesaid sum when it comes due then the said J. M. Cook shall after due calculation of time and place of sale sell at public auction for each the property hereby comprised, at any time what is known as the County Court house and if the proceeds of the sale of the same is not sufficient to pay the aforesaid sum with costs and expenses of sale then to continue the sale of all of the lands comprised by this Deed until fully paid the amount thereof to the trust herein created.
