

Dyler has in cultivation on his own account. In consideration whereof the said Hardy agrees to perform the duties of Servant for said Dyler during the year 1880 to cultivate the corn & Peanuts, which the said Dyler has planted on his own account and to gather & prepare the same for market all under the control & direction of said Dyler, and the said Hardy agrees that should he demand any advances in supplies or money beyond the $20 that the said Dyler shall have a lien on his third of said crops to secure such advances, and shall have the right to retain such part of his third as may be necessary to pay for such advances. The said Hardy agrees that should he get sick or otherwise be unable or fail to perform his part of this Agreement, that the said Dyler shall have the right to supply such assistance as he may think necessary, and to pay for the same out of what may be due or coming to the said Hardy. And it is understood that in the duties of Servant the following services are specially to be performed, viz: to cut & haul all fire wood, to make fences, to feed & attend to the stock and to do such other acts about the farm as the said Dyler may require. Witness the following signatures.

James B. Dyler
Master Hardy

Southampton County, In the Clerk's Office May 29th 1880.
This Writing between James B. Dyler and Walter Hardy, was this day received, and acknowledged by the parties to be their act and deed, and admitted to record.

Teste: J. P. Edwards C. C.

Examined
J. P. Edwards
J. P. Edwards
This Agreement made this 1st day of June in the year 1880 between J. P. Eland of the first part and George W. Stewart of the latter part both of the County of Southampton State of Virginia, Witnesseth as follows: That the said George W. Stewart is engaged in, or about to engage in, the cultivation of the soil and is desirous that the said J. P. Eland shall during the present year make certain advances to the said cultivator of the soil, which the said J. P. Eland has agreed to do. Now this Agreement Witnesseth, that the said J. P. Eland does hereby promise and agree to advance and furnish to the said George W. Stewart