This Deed made the 19th day of February A. D. 1880 between Warren J. Elliott, Special Commissioner as hereinafter stated, party of the first part and William Dumbor Blom party of the other part. Whereas by a deed entered on the 4th day, February in the year 1880 in a suit in equity then and now pending in the Corporation Court of Norfolk city between Emma Blacknall and others Plaintiffs and Wm. A. Blom administrator of George Blom, deceased and others Defendants, partition was made, in part, of the lands belonging to the estate of the said George Blom, deceased, among the parties entitled thereto, and the lands herein after described were allotted to the said William Dumbor Blom who is one of the heirs at law of the said George Blom, deceased, and by the same decree the said Warren J. Elliott, Special Commissioner, was directed to convey by deed the lands allotted to the several parties entitled thereto. Now therefore this Deed witnesseth that the said Warren J. Elliott Special Commissioner in consideration of the premises and of the sum of Five Dollars to him in hand paid, and by virtue of the Authority vested in him by the said decree, doth grant unto the said William Dumbor Blom, the following property to wit: That certain tract piece or parcel of land in the County of Southampton known as "The Mill Seat" and including all the land on both sides of the Mill Road, belonging to the Estate of said George Blom deceased, which lies south of the road running east from said Mill Road and known as the Road to James O. Bovey and do hold the said land with all its appurtenances including the Mill Pond unto the said William Dumbor Blom, his heirs and assigns forever.
