ceivers may have on hand at the time of sale or may acquire thereafter before delivery of possession, And it was in and by the said decree further declared and agreed that the estate and interest of the complainants in the said cause in the said premises was, at the date of the said decree, subject to the prior liens therein particularly described, and that subject to such prior liens to the extent that they might be outstanding at the time of the sale in the said decree provided for, with interest then accrued on the sums of money secured thereby, the said premises must be sold as afterwards directed by the said decree, and that there was a default on the part of the said railroad Company in the payment of the installments of interest upon the bonds issued under the said deed of trust to the complainants, due and payable according to the tenor thereof, on the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and that since the last named date no part of such interest had been paid, and that the amount of such interest which had become and remained due and payable was, at the date of the said decree, the sum of one million nine hundred and thirty-two thousand six hundred and eighty seven dollars and seventy-five cents, and that the mortgaged premises could not be sold in parcels without loss and prejudice to all parties interested therein, and that the nature and situation of the property was such that the interest of all parties required that it should be sold as an entirety. And it was in and by the said decree further ordered and decreed that the Board of Public Works, or the State of Virginia, defendants in the said cause pay into the registry of the said Court on or before the second Tuesday of January next, after the making of the said decree the amount of the debt ascertained to be due as aforesaid from the said railroad Company to the complainants in the said cause, and such further sum as might become due in the meantime for interest upon the bonds secured by the said deed of trust, and that in default thereof the said Board of Public Works, and the State of Virginia, be forever barred and foreclosed of and from all claim, lien, and equity of redemption of, in, or to the property and franchises embraced in or covered by the said deed of trust; and that the said defendant, the Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio Railroad Company, pay into the registry of the said Court on or before the said second Tuesday of January then next, the amount ascertained and declared to be due by the said Railroad Company, to the said complainants as aforesaid, under the said deed of trust, together with the costs in the said cause; and that unless payment should be made by the said Board of Public Works, the State of Virginia or the said railroad Company as so provided in the said decree, all and singular the property and franchises of every kind described in the said third paragraph of the said decree, be sold by a master to be specially appointed for that purpose, subject to the amounts of the prior liens and incumbrances found and stated in the fourth paragraph of the said decree as the same might exist at the time of the sale, and subject also to all executory contracts made by the receivers in the said cause under the authority of the said Court (of which the said receivers were directed to give to the master, on his request, a full and accurate statement, and which contracts, if any, should be publicly announced by the master at the time of sale) and subject also to any liability that might be thereafter established against the said receivers growing out of any lawful acts