Whereas A. G. Potters and M. Virginia Potters his wife are engaged in the cultivation of the soil and desire an advancement in money to enable them to carry on their operations, which advancement is not to exceed one hundred and twenty five dollars and J. B. Prince is willing to furnish the same, now therefore this agreement made this 11th day of June 1881 between the said A. G. Potters and wife of one part and J. B. Prince of the other part witnesseth that in consideration of the above the said parties of the first part do grant unto the said Prince a lien on all the crops they may make during the year 1881 on either or both of their farms in Southampton County.
