

and the said Elizabeth shall happen to survive the said Nicholas then she will remain satisfied with the estate secured to her and the provision made for her by, these presents and will claim no part or share either as dower or otherwise free or to the lands slaves or personal estate of which she said Nicholas Faulcon is now or may hereafter be possessed except such part thereof as he shall think proper to give and devise to her by his last will and testament In Witness whereof the parties to these presents have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written

Signed sealed and Delivered
In presence of

William Uguhart

Burwell Williamson

John Andrews

Hartwell Locke

Nicholas Faulcon Test

Elizabeth Clements Test

Micajah Hallman Test

Received this Tenth day of May seventeen Hundred and ninety the sum of ten shillings the consideration money within Mentioned
Witness

William Uguhart

Burwell Williamson

John Andrews

Hartwell Locke

Elizabeth Clements

A Schedule of the goods and Chattels belonging to Elizabeth Clements taken the tenth day of May 1790

Four Mares Thirty Cattle Twenty five Sheep one hundred and thirty Hogs including Pigs One still including its appertenance Four Beds of Furniture One Dozen Silver table spoons and Dozen D. & T. Tea in spare silver Tea tongues and all the China or Porcelain ware that now are or may be on the plantation Four Walnut Tables and Chests Drawers One dozen Chairs and all the Kitchen Furniture that now are or may be on the plantation and plantation Utensils of all kinds that now are or may be taken on.