Taylor
 to Blake

Know All Men by these presents, That I Henry Taylor of the County of Southampton & State of Virginia have bargained for, sold and delivered, and by these presents do bargain for, sell and deliver unto Ellis Gray Blake, late of the State & County aforesaid, a certain tract or parcels of Land, situated in the County aforesaid, and known in my father's Will & Testament by the "Stone tract", after taking out a certain part thereof unto Eliah Nicholson, be the residue thereof, more or less, for and in consideration of the sum of one thousand dollars, in hand well paid the receipt whereof I do hereby acknowledge. To all which residue of Land, together with all and singular the appurtenances and improvements thereon, and thereto belonging, I do by these presents relinquish all claim, title for myself, my Heirs, &c. forever, unto the said Ellis Gray Blake, his heirs, Executors, Administrors, or assigns, and the said Henry Taylor do further agree, to warrant and defend the quiet possession, the full extent of such residue of Land, unto the said Ellis Gray Blake, his heirs &c. forever — To the full performance of the said Henry Taylor do bind myself, my heirs, &c. Administrors, in the penalty of the damages, as written my hand & Seal, this fourteenth day of August, A. D. One thousand seven hundred and Ninety seven.
