Southampton County Ct.

This day appeared before me Nath. Nicholson a Justice of the peace for the afore said County of Southampton, John Harris Esq Administrator of Charlotte Ivey dec^d and made oath that he verily believes the above account to be a just one, well knowing that the said orphans were raised, maintained and educated as therein stated given under my hand this second day of December 1814

Nath. Nicholson

By the last will and Testament of Henry Ivey dec^d proved and recorded in Southampton County Court on April 1800, he sent to his Widow the said Charlotte Ivey, for and during life or Widowhood, the use of his land and plantation, all the other estate, of whatever kind or nature, or whatsoever found he the said Henry Ivey to her the said Charlotte his Widow, did send the use and profits, wholly during her natural life or widowhood - So that there was by the said will no provision made, for raising the said Henry Ivey's two Children, unless the said Widow should die or marry - She nevertheless raised and educated the said two orphan Children, and has only charged them very moderately for their support and maintenance -

George Ivey sent, named in the said Will as executor, contrary to the provisions thereof, proceeded to sell and did sell the said estate, said excepted notwithstanding, it had all been loaned, to the said Widow for life or Widowhood, and by his account current returned
