A.D. The principal upon which this account is made up is the distribution of the personal estate of Pilgrim Dick dec'd who left a will in and by which his daughter Belinda Fick is not provided for and as such the legatus named therein have by their certificate in writing instructed me to divide the said decedent's estate as follows: To wit. One third part to Sally Dick widow and child of the said Pilgrim Dick dec'd the legacy to Belinda Fick Catharine Mary Jane Fick and Lemuel Dick. The same to be divided and not affected by the posthumous heir to wit Belinda Dick and by the consent of William Story who intermarried with Sally Fick legacy and also by the consent of Mills Johnson who likewise intermarried with Anna Dick. Legacy to have divided the balance of said decedent's estate into three equal parts making the sum due to each as above stated in each their accounts. Submitted,

Jacob Barnes
