The Commissioner reports further that the guardian laid before him an order from the County Court allowing him to expend the sum of twenty dollars for the year 1848, and ten dollars for 1849 out of the principal of his ward's estate for her support. The guardian's bond is in the penalty of one thousand dollars with Jethro Cobb and Thomas Starnum as sureties, all of which is most respectfully submitted.

William B. Shamos, Commissioner.

At a Court held for the County of Southampton, the 18th day of November 1850. This account of Harrison D. Moore's guardianship of Nancy Bryant, having lain one month in the Clerk's office, and there being no exceptions thereto, was examined, confirmed and ordered to be recorded.
