from the testator's estate which your order is now called upon for. the further sum of £120. 10. 0. making in the whole the sum of £276. 3. all which matters and things will fully appear upon reference. to the Will. the appraisement, the account Current. and the list of the debts now due which are hereto annexed and prayed to be considered as part of this bill of Complaint.

But now so it is may it please the Court that notwithstanding the premises the said Benjamin Weston refuses to deliver up the said Slaves to your order for the purpose of paying his proportion of the said testator's debts or in any manner to contribute thereto. thereby subjecting your order and the other legates to the payment of the whole debts. which your order conceives to be hard, oppressive and contrary to every principle of justice.

In tender consideration whereof and for as much as your order is without remedy only in a Court of equity, whose province it is to compel legates in such Cases to respond.

It is therefore that the said Benjamin Weston (who your order prays may be considered as defendant to this bill of Complaint) may upon his corporal oath full true and perfect answer make to all and singular the allegations in this bill contained, and that as Copiously as if the same were again herein repeated and interrogated.

And that your order will decree that the said defendant pay to your order the sum of £54. 5. being his proportion of the testator's unsettled debts, according to the appraised value of the Slaves of the testator, or in default thereof, that he deliver up the said Slaves to your order, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to satisfy his said proportion, and make any other or further order or decree therein as may be equitable & just.

Very respectfully

Yours obedient Servant

To the Honorable Court of the High Court of Chancery in the County of Middlesex, in the City of London, in the County of Middlesex, in the County of Middlesex, in the County of Middlesex, your orator John Gordon executor of the Last Will & Testament of John Gordon the elder deceased.

That the said testator John in his lifetime and at the time of his decease was possessed of a number of houses and personal chattels deposited in his life, on or about the day of 1799 after having made his last will & testament wherein he nominated and appointed your orator his executor who qualified according to law and took upon him the burden of the execution of the said will — In the will aforesaid the testator devised to your orator 3 Slaves that were appraised to £85. to his son Bartholomew 2 Slaves appraised to £30. to his daughter Elizabeth who intermarried with Thomas Thelick 2 Slaves appraised to £85. to Sylvia his widow two Slaves and 2 beds furniture appraised to £85. to his daughter Charlotte who intermarried with Benjamin Wagon two Slaves to wit, James & Moll appraised to £75. which were all devised by your orator to the said legatee, only instead of Moll being devised to Charlotte, your orator devised her a girl called Judy & Moll's child, which was done by her consent and ratified by the said Wagon which was in fact of more value than Moll. your orator further shews that in the Settlement of his testator's debts, he is already in advance for the said debts £50. and the said debts are

The Answer of Benjamin Weston, Defendant, to the Bill of Complaint exhibited against him by John Godwin, executor of John Godwin dec'd.

Complt

The Defendant, saving to himself every benefit of exception to the Complainant's Bill, answers thereto as follows — He admits the death of John Godwin, the elder — his leaving such a last will & Testament as the Complainant mentions — the Complainant's being the executor thereof — & he supposes that James & Moll, the slaves given to the Defendant's wife, were appraised as stated by the Complainant; — but he knows nothing of the debts of the Testator that yet remain to be paid — He therefore must deny that any such exist, & he is induced the rather to think <sup>so</sup> from the length of time that has elapsed since the death of the Testator —

But even admitting that there are such debts, the Defendant considers that the difference in value between the slaves that the Defendant & his wife were entitled to under the will & Testament of the said Godwin, & the slaves, which they see? was sufficient to answer the contribution now claimed by the Complt of the Defendant, — & indeed it was expressly agreed that this difference should answer that purpose — The Defendant received James, Lady at the age of about ten years, & one of Moll's children called Tom, in lieu of receiving James, Moll, who was 25 years old, Tom, & another child of Moll, of about one year old — The latter were considered of far more value than the former, & sufficiently so to pay up ~~any~~ the contribution now demanded by the Complainant of the Defendant

<sup>the Defendant has</sup> — Indeed it rather surprises the Complainant, who is fully acquainted with all these circumstances & must recollect too his agreement upon this subject, should now call on the Defendant in

The Deposition of Tho. Hall Being first sworn to on the holy Evangelist of almighty god, and of Lawfull age taken in a certain Matter of Controversy Depending and undetermined in the county court of Isle of Wight, in chancery, Deposeth & sayeth that he happened at the house of John godwin De. with Samuel godwin to take a Bill of Sale for a Negro Woman Moll and child for Samuel godwin, and this Deponeant heard M<sup>r</sup>. Godwin the Mother of John & Charlotte godwin say, that if she was in Charlotte's place she would have a bill of sale for her Negro too and that John godwin said she must think him a great Liar to be shure, and observed that he had given her the Negro Girl Judy and that he then before them all gave her to her again This Deponeant understood that John godwin De. the father of John & Charlotte Died Possessor of Negro Moll & Girl Judy and that in his will he gave Moll who some time after had a child to Charlotte, And this Deponeant believes that Negro Moll & child was of a greater Value then the girl Judy and this Deponeant sayeth that he did not hear any Bargain made Between John & Charlotte about the Negro Moll & child & Judy and this Deponeant being interrogated by both parties sayeth not

The deposition of Robert R. Reade, of full age, taken in a suit in Chancery now depending and undetermined, in the Court of Sessions of the County of Wright, wherein John G. Brown is Plaintiff in deed, and Benjamin Boston is Defendant; — agreeably to a commission issued out of the Court of the said County, to us directed, and which is hereto annexed, legal notice being proved to have been given, — This deponent being first duly sworn on the holy evangelist of Almighty God, Deposeth and saith that, — sometime in the year 1799 he lost two hogs, after looking for them several days, he found one of them, in Isaac Martin's pen, who was then a resident of the County, and <sup>lived</sup> near him, he made application to Mr. G. G. G. for a search warrant to warrant a constable for the County, and after making acquaintance <sup>with</sup> that the hogs were not marked, and that he had reason to believe that one had been killed, the day before by s. Martin, Mr. G. G. G. prevailed on me not to take a search warrant, but to claim the hog in the pen, and get pay for the one that I had <sup>reason</sup> to believe had been killed, I applied to Martin and claimed the hog, & he denied that it was <sup>my</sup> hog and offered to swear that it was his, together with the one that had been killed, but after finding that the hog in the pen was mine, by indifferent testimony, he agreed to pay me for the one that he had killed, and delivered the one that was in the pen — and desired me to keep the Matter a secret, my reply was that, as I did not wish to Defame any mans Character, and at the same <sup>time</sup> did not wish to keep such transactions a secret, if I was asked any questions by any person respecting the matter I inform them the truth of Case — and further the deponent ~~with~~ not — Rob<sup>t</sup>. B. Reade —

Isle of Wight County, Iowa.

The foregoing deposition of Robert B. Reade was taken before us George Benn & evening of the same day Given under our hands &

The deposition of Elizabeth Roundtree of full age, taken in a suit in Chancery now depending and undetermined, in the Court of Isle of Wight County, wherein John Godwin vs. John Godwin, is Complainant and Benjamin Roundtree Defendant; agreeably to a commission issued out of the Court of the said County to us directed and which is hereunto annexed, legal notice being proved to have been given — This deponent being first duly sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God deposes and saith that — sometime after the sale of the estate of John Godwin the elder decd: — her brother John Godwin the exor: of s<sup>d</sup> Estate, mentioned that there were debts due from the s<sup>d</sup> estate to sundry persons, and that he must sell an negro that had been devised to each of the creditors — which he expected would be sufficient to discharge the s<sup>d</sup> debts, — she also well recollects that at the sale of her father's estate her brother John Godwin the exor: purchased a negro girl by name Judy, that sometime <sup>after</sup> there was a swap took place between the s<sup>d</sup> John and his sister Charlotte Godwin, for s<sup>d</sup> negro Judy which he purchased at the sale, and negro Moll, which was devised to Charlotte by the will of her father, and that this this deponent does not recollect that the s<sup>d</sup> John did agree to exonerate the s<sup>d</sup> Charlotte from her proportion of any debts that might come ag<sup>t</sup> her father's estate — and further this deponent saith not —
