Chancery Causes: George Nevill, infant of Peggy Everett vs William Barradall

Isle of Wight County

other surnames: Matthews, Barradill, Nevil, Barnadale

To the worshipful Court of Sir of Wight Sitting in chancery humbly complaining sheweth That your orator George Newell one infant son of Peggy Everett by the said Peggy his next friend

That your orator as he is informed, was a natural child of the said Peggy born about the year of 1701, that immediately after his birth he was committed to the care of his grandmother the Gainer Matthews, who during his helpless and infant state raised & supported him, that ever since he has been able to work & labour, being deeply impressed with a sense of gratitude he has contributed all in his power towards the support of his grandmother who is at present so aged & infirm that it is impossible for her to support herself, that notwithstanding the premises a certain William Barnard of this County made application to his Court without the knowledge of your estate & his friends and in this secret manner, and without informing the Court of these circumstances obtained an order for the removal of the Poole to bind your estate to the said William, who has been done. notwithstanding your estate was understood & constantly working for ways to support himself & grandchildren, and there being no possibility of your estate ever being chargeable to the said, nor is possible for your estate in the short time has is bound to leave the trade of the said Barnadell, and to get, that education which by law he is bound to give on his continuance with him, these circumstances combined sufficiently convinces your estate that the acts & doings of the said Barnadell in this respect are unjust & improper, being well known that his own emolument, and not your estate's interest, is his object, and that the Court men would have made such order if they had been fairly informed of the circumstances

In under consideration whereof, if your estate or your estate is without remedy only in this unhappy case, To the end therefore that the said William Barnadell, who your estate may may be made dependent to this bill of Complaint may upon his Complaint & the full time & perfect answer make to all and singular the allegations therein contained that is especially as if the same were again herein repeated & interrogated

And that your estate will desire that the order of this Court for the removal of the Poole to bind your estate to William Barnadell be reversed, & that the indentures made by the said Overseers be of none effect until the further order or de-ree of this Court upon the subject, and that your estate will make any other or further order or decree in the premises for your estate's relief as may seem meet. May it please the your estate for Complaint

The answer of William Baradale, to a bill of Complaint exhibited against him, by George Miel, in the County Court of Isle of Wight in Chy. 2. This respondent having now and at all times hereafter all and all manner of right of exception or Demurre to the Complainants said bill for the many Errors, uncertainties, untruths and other imperfections in the bill contained, for answer thereof or to do much thereof as he considers, or is advised, is material for him to answer unto, he answering saith.

That the said George was bound apprentice to this respondent in the manner directed by law in such cases. That he the said George was a proper object of the act providing for binding out poor Orphans. ~~That~~ ~~and the~~ ~~act~~ ~~providing~~ ~~for~~ ~~binding~~ ~~out~~ ~~bastard~~ ~~children~~. ~~That~~ ~~this~~ ~~respondent~~ ~~was~~ ~~willing~~ ~~and~~ ~~desirous~~ ~~of~~ ~~doing~~ ~~him~~ ~~the~~ ~~said~~ ~~George~~ ~~all~~ ~~manner~~ ~~of~~ ~~justice~~, ~~in~~ ~~feeding~~, ~~clothing~~ ~~and~~ ~~schooling~~ ~~as~~ ~~the~~ ~~said~~ ~~act~~ ~~prescribed~~, ~~and~~ ~~he~~ ~~the~~ ~~said~~ ~~George~~ ~~was~~ ~~capable~~ ~~of~~ ~~receiving~~.

This respondent considers the conduct of the said George, ~~in~~ applying in the manner he has done to the same Court under whose authority he was bound out, as an ingenious stratagem to impose on the Court and to evade the performance of his duty, all fraud &c. denied. This respondent therefore prays to be dismissed with his Costs about this Cause so wrongfully sustained.
