To the Worshipful the Chancery Court of Isle of Wight County now sitting, humbly com-plaining, shew unto yr. worships, Yr. Orator and Oratrix, William Duggin and Stacey his wife, formerly Stacey Turner

That a certain Josiah Turner departed this life on or about the day of 181 having first made & published his last will & Testament, which is now of record in the County Court aforesaid & prayed to be taken as a part of this bill, in which he devises to your Oratrix and a certain Martha Turner (both of whom are sisters of the whole blood to the said devisee) a small tract or parcel of land lying and being in the aforesaid City, and containing about fifty three acres, be the same more or less, - Your Orator & Oratrix beg leave to state to yr. worships, that they are desirous, that a legal & proper division of the said land should be made between them and the s^d Martha, and that after such division, that their part or share, should be sold by an order of this honourable Court, and that they are advised, that such a division & sale cannot legally be made ex-cept by the interposition of a Court of equity where such matters are alone relivable and properly cognizable - Your Orator & Oratrix beg leave again to state to yr. worships, that the said share, will not sell for any thing like pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Eschopewick
