W. Jordan alle:
Isabel! County

To the worshipful Court of Isle of Wight County in Chancery sitting humbly complaining, sheweth unto worships, Your Orator Alfred H. Lewis, of the County aforesaid;

That on the day of in the Yr.
18 he intermarried with a certain Ridley Tay= lor, the widow and relict of Travis Taylor, and on the day of following he qualified as the Guardian, in this worshipful Court to R. C. Taylor, Travis Taylor and Lucinda M. Taylor - children and orphans of the said Travis Taylor, that some short time thereafter the negro slaves belonging to the est: of the said Travis, were, by a decree of this worshipful Court, equally divided between the afor^d. children, after having first assigned Your Orator, in right of his wife, his dower interest in the same.

Your Orator begs leave to state to your worships ^{that the said children} were at the time of his qualifica= tion as Guardian, young & impulsive, and that they had no estate whatsoever to sup= port them, other than the slaves afor^d. who were few in number, and whose hire was not half adequate for that poor prose, and that they therefore, in a few years became considerably indebted to him as their Guard: for their necessary support and maintenance, he was therefore advised to apply to a Court of Equity for a sale of the slaves allotted to them, for the purpose of liquidating his Guard: = dary account, which he accordingly did, and obtained a decree for that purpose on the day of 182 , but so it is, the said slaves did not sell, for as much as was sufficient to discharge & liquidate his account which they of him against them, and he has ever since, been supporting them, with board clothing and ~~at~~ schooling, without receiving one cent as he ought to have done in con= sideration of the same, and has now a Agreeably to the within license to me directed, I did on the 24th Nov. 1827 after advertising the sale, as directed by the within decree, proceed to sell at public auction the within na-amed negroes, which sold for the sum of Four hundred and ninety nine dollars, after deducting expenses of suit and Sale, for which sum, your Court took Bonds of the purchaser as directed by the within decree, and assigne them over to the Guardian of the infant defendants. as will appear by his receipt hereunto filed, all of which is respectfully submitted.
