may not be taken into the distribution, but that he may be permitted to remain as he is subject to the future order of the Court, should he ever be recovered - She further states, that the said ^{adms.} have more than sufficient assets, other than the ~~negroes~~ ^{assets} to pay off and discharge all debts and demands against the estate of their said intestate - In tender consideration whereof and for as much as your Orator is totally without remedy in the premises except through the intervention of a Court of Chancery - To the end therefore, that the said Thos. Carnell & Love Stollenman as the ^{adms.} of the s^d Peter Jones be made perpetual defendants to this Bill, and that they be compelled to answer all the allegations herein contained, as fully as if the same were here again repeated, & they thereto

To the Worshipful Court of Pleas & the County in Chancery sitting humbly Complaining sheweth unto your Honors, Your Oratrix Mary Ann Jones, widow and relict of Peter Jones dec'd. late of the County of Pleas. - That the said Peter Jones, the husband of Your Oratrix, departed this life some time on or about the day of in the Year intestate, seized and possessed of a considerable real and personal property, consisting in part of the following named negro slaves to wit, King, Jim, Cooper Jim, Bob, Aaron, Jack, Lewis, American, Patrick, Albert, Carter, David, Brumwell, Merit, Peter Bilbert, George, Phillis, Nancy, Venus, Maria, Adelaide, Cynthia, Willey, Minney, Elmerine, Jane and Ned - That the said Peter Jones her husband having as before mentioned, died intestate, left his widow Your Oratrix unprovided for, which compels her to resort to a Court of Chancery for her legal proportion of the aforesaid negro slaves, who are now in the possession of a certain Thomas Carroll and Joel Hollerman, who are the legally qualified administrators of the said Peter Jones, and who refuse to consent to her proportion of said slaves being allotted to her by the sanction and decree of a Court of Equity, where matters of this sort alone cognizable - Your Oratrix also begs leave to state to your Honors, that the said negro Ned has been run away for more than twelve months, and it is therefore uncertain whether or not he will ever be recovered, which induces Your Oratrix to say that he

In obedience to the aforesaid decree of the Honourable Court, of Slave Rights, herewith annexed. The undersigned have valued the negroes mentioned in said decree (to be divided) and valued the same to Six Thousand Three hundred dollars and have assigned to Mary Ann Jones the following negroes (Tolbert, King, Cooper Sirs, Andrew, Albert, David, Grace Phelps, Cynthia and Minerva, valued at Two Thousand one hundred dollars as her dower, which is respectfully submitted to the Court. Given under our hands this 2nd day of December 1839.
