Filed of H. & Co. Co.

The ^{joint Request} answer of Meridith Holland & Polly Vaughan as defendant by the said Meridith Holland her guardian & next friend to the Bill of complaint exhibited against them in this court by Atty. Gen. Holland Compt.

These respondents saving and reserving the for answer therein say that the facts & statements in the said bill contained are true, & they are willing that the court shall enter such decree in the premises as may be proper & legal under the circumstances of the case, & having answered the prayer to be dismissed with their costs &c.

Holland v. Holland & Pol. This cause came on this day to be heard on the bill & answer by counsel & was argued by counsel: on consideration whereof the court doth adjudge order & decree, that Matthew Daughtry, Solomon Daughtry & Lemuel Vaughan or any two of them, after advertising the same at least ten days at two or more public places, sell at public auction the tract of land in the bill mentioned, the same being the down land of which Elizabeth Daughtry died possessed, on a credit of nine months, & after dividing the proceeds of sale into three equal parts take for each of the said parts a bond with good security, making one bond payable to the corp. Meridith & Holland, one bond payable to the def. Meridith Holland in his own right & the other bond payable to him the said Meridith Holland as guardian of the def.
Polly Vaughan - and the court doth further adjudge order & decree that the executors or such of them as may act do divide the shares in the bill mentioned, to wit, Rachael, Fanny, John, Rachel, Dick &

Isaac into three equal parts & distribute the same as before directed in relation to the land, & make report.

To the worshipful court of Isle of Wight County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining sheweth unto your worshipps your orator & witness Holland, that some time about the first of January in the present year (1833) his mother Elizabeth Daughtery, late widow of Job Holland, now orator's father, departed this life, leaving the following real & personal estate of which she was possessed for life as widow of a man, that is to say, one small tract of land situate in the county of Isle of Wight containing by estimation sixty acres, of the value of $150 or $200 and six slaves, to wit, Rachael, Fanny, Fibe, Nansah, Dick and Isaac: since the termination of the said life estate in the said real and personal property the same is liable to division among the children & heirs of the said Job Holland, namely, Meredith Holland, Polly Vaughan infant grand daughter of the said Job Holland & your orator - your orator states that the said land cannot be divided without injury to the rights of these parties in the slaves afore, and your orator believes may be fairly & equitably divided in kind - In Tender consideration of the said facts to the end therefore that the said Meredith Holland, and Polly Vaughan an infant by some person or persons special guardian, who are prayed to be made deft's next to may upon their corporal oaths full & perfect answer make to all & singular the premises & that as perfectly as if the same were here again repeated & interrogated - your orator pray, that your worshipps will decree a sale & division of the said land together with such division of the said slaves upon such terms & in such manner as may be deemed right & that you will make such other or further order & decree in the premises as may seem equitable to you. May it please the court -

In obedience to an interlocutory decree, Holland vs Holland, pronounced by the County Court of Talbot County, January term 1833, Your Commissioners having ascertained the time and place of sale of the lands in the bill mentioned, by three several advertisements, one of which, was posted up at the door of the Court House of said County, at least ten days previous to the day of sale: when Messrs Holland, became the last bidder and purchaser for the sum of

$61.25

Your Commrs then deducted $10 the allowance for the Chief and $12 the Commrs. & Clerk's Commission making other expenses incident to the sale & disposal of the slaves

leaving a balance of $35.25

Your Commrs then devised the net proceeds of sale of $35.25 into three equal parts, namely $11.75

Your Commrs then took Messrs Holland's bond, with Samuel S. Galt as his security, payable to the said Holland in his own right for the sum of

We also took Messrs Holland's bond with Samuel S. Galt as his security, payable to Messrs Holland as guardian for Polly Vaughan for the sum of

Messrs Holland's own proportion

which will account for the purchase money amounting to $35.25

Your Commrs then delivered the said bonds to the said defendants and took the receipt for the same: all of which is submitted.

Your Commissioners then proceeded to divide the slaves in the bill mentioned, namely

Rachel valued at $40

Fanny " $30

Zibo " $3.00

Pandal " $3.00

Dick " $4.50

Isaac " $4.50
