Report of Comr.

To the County Court of Shropshire, &c. -

The undersigned having been previously sworn, have proceeded to value the lands in the County of Shropshire to which Henry Reynolds is entitled, according to the assessed value and report that the only lands or real estate of the said Henry Reynolds is his undivided third part of the lands whereof his father Henry Reynolds and: died seized. The tract of land we consider worth in the whole the sum of $435 in fee; and we estimate the intent of the said Henry Reynolds to be worth $145 - and we are not informed of any personal estate or funds within the power of the said Court, out of which the debts to the deft: or any part thereof can be discharged, except that we understand and report that the intent of the said Henry Reynolds in the personal estate of the said Reynolds, his father now in the hands of B. Leigh of St. the admr: is probably worth $100 - Given under our hands and seals this 5. of Jan'y 1838.
