Said defendant may answer the premises as fully and as directly, as if the same were again repeated, and he specially thence interrogated: And that by a decree of this honorable court the said defendant may be compelled to settle his administration account, & to make such a division of the personal estate as the law directs, and also that commissary be appointed to lay off and allot to your orator Wrennifus and your orator James Franklin their portions of the real estate.
And may it please your worship to grant all such other and further relief in the premises, as may be consistent with the law and principles of this court; and to award all such process, as may be necessary and proper, in the premises -

The Answer of to a bill exhibited against him in the county court of Essex of right by Richard Davis and Wrennifus his wife my Respondent now and at all times him after saving and reserving to himself all benefit of exception to the allegations of the plaintiffs in the bill. For answer thereto says that he admits so far as he is at present advised, that the allegations of the bill are true, and that he has no objection to any decree which this court may make in the premises - and having thus answered prays to be dismissed with his reasonable costs in this behalf expended.

To the worshipful the Justices of Isle of Wight county in Chancery sitting, Humbly complaining shew unto your worshipps, Your Orator and Oratrix Richard Harris, and Winnifred his wife, That your Oratrix Winnifred Harris was the widow of Henry Gaskins late of the county of Isle of Wight but now deceased, - and James ~~Henry~~ ^{Franklin} Gaskins by Robert A Pope his next friend - That the said Henry Gaskins died some time in the year 1782 and was seized on his estate - That the said Henry Gaskins was seized and possessed at the time of his death of a small tract of land containing by estimation. an lying and being in the county of Isle of Wight - That the debts having been paid, a division of the estate will be made to the intent of your Oratrix and her child That your Oratrix as well for herself as her child has applied to the said Robert A Pope for a division of the said estate of her late husband - But now so it is that the said Robert A Pope hereinafter called defendant will not do so but has no objection to come to a bill of sale of his administration and to make a division - But upon account of the infancy of the child - All of which would on the part of the said defendant is contrary to equity - In tender consideration whereof, and for as much as your Orator and Oratrix Richard & Winnifred and your Orator James Franklin by his said next friend are without remedy at law and can only be relieved in this honorable court - Matter of this sort are cognizable and duly considered To the end therefore that the
