To the County Court of Shelby County, Miss. in Chancery - humbly complaining - I shew to the Court your complacence may ~~be made~~ Daughters of the County of Shelby County - that she is the widow of one Matthew Daughters who departed this life in the County of Shelby County intestate on or about the day of October 1840, sized and possessed of in fee simple a valuable real estate in the County of Shelby County - ~~the~~ which consists of two or more tracts together with a water mill and saw mill that the intestate left two children by a former marriage who are now infants and whose names are Harriet & Emeline

A. P. Young Esq.
for Petitioners Defendants

In obedience to the annexed decree of the county court of Schofield bearing date November court eighteen hundred and forty one and to all the commissioners directed proceed to set apart to Mary A Daughtry the widow of Matthew Daughtry and the plaintiff in this bill an equal third part of all the real Estate of the said Matthew Daughtry and the parties being consulted as to having all the land surveyed it was concluded on, not to call on a surveyor only to run the line of the part assigned to Mary A Daughtry the Plaintiff and widow. Having the cases before us of all the land except the home plantation and that we had a plat off, proceed to set apart to the said Mary A Daughtry the widow &c. the dwelling and all the houses thereunto attached and one hundred and sixty acres of land marked and bounded as follows beginning 18 poles below the mill house on the king side swamp at a black gum thence South $19^{\circ} 30'$ E. 28 poles to a sycamore standing near the gate in front of the dwelling, thence run East 3 poles and 15 links to the center of the South gray road thence S. 13° W. 60 poles to a red oak, thence S. 10° W. 38 poles to a red oak a corner tree made for the purpose of this line standing on the East side of the said S. gray road, thence S. $88^{\circ} 30'$ W. 137 poles across the field to a large green pine thence N. $45^{\circ} 30'$ W. 104 poles along a line of marked trees to a saws for stop, thence N. 34° E. 18 poles to king side swamp thence up the said Swamp to the black gum the first station which your said commissioners having regard to quality as well as quantity thought the above quantity of one hundred and sixty acres including the dwelling with all the out houses thereunto attached one full and equal third part of all the real Estate of the said Decd. Matthew Daughtry to gether with the privilege of getting fire wood and rail timber for her own use off of the remainder of the said decd. land so there is no hurt timber used for that purpose &c. and further your commissioners report not given under our hands this first day of January 1842
