for al. decem.

To the Justices of the County Court of Isle of Wight, in Chancery Sitting, Humbly complaining Shew unto the Court your orators & orators, Emily Pinner, Josiah Pinner, John Pinner, Thomas Pinner & Francis D. Holdaday and Susannah his wife, formerly Susannah Pinner: That a certain Sarah Pinner late of the said County, departed this life some time in November 1841, intestate & possessed of a negro man, named Sam. The said slave, Sam, your orators are advised is not wanting to pay ^{the} debts of the deceased as there is a sufficiency, in land or money to discharge all claims against the estate of the said Sarah Pinner decd.
That, therefore, the said slave, Sam, ought to be sold & the proceeds divided among those entitled, according to law to the same. Administration on the estate of the deceased has been granted to a certain Erwin Morrison who has, or may have, the said slave under his control.
The heirs of the said Sarah Pinner, are your orators Emily Pinner the daughter of the deceased, Josiah Pinner, John Pinner Thomas Pinner, Susannah Holdaday, (formerly Pinner), Jeremiah Pinner & Margaret Pinner, her brothers & sisters, who with her said mother, the said Emily Pinner, are equally entitled to the said slave or the proceeds from a sale of the same. But the said Administrator refuses to deliver, or sell, the slave Sam, aforesaid unless by a decree of this honorable Court of Equity, all of which is contrary to Equity & good conscience. To the end therefore, that relief may be had in the premises your orators & orators pray the Court—the said Erwin Morrison admission of the said Sarah Pinner decd and the said Jeremiah Pinner & Margaret Pinner (infants—under the age of 21 years) by their guardian ad litem, to be appointed by the Court, be made defendants hereto, and be compelled to answer the same fully & sincerely; and that the Court, will & decree, sell the said slave Sam, and the proceeds divided among persons entitled, by & commissioning, & power two for such purpose, & may it please the Court to grant all other & further reliefs in the premises, that may be meet & proper shew unto
