& release & the records thereof reference being had will more fully appear, & which said deeds of lease & release are in the words & figures following, that is to say, This Indenture made the 9th day of October in the year of our Lord 1838 between Thomas Chaloner of the County of Southampton Esquire of the one part & John H. Woodley of the County of the City of Southampton Esquire of the other part witnesseth that the said Thomas Chaloner for & in consideration of the sum of Chalmers v Woodley &c.

This suit is to obtain a specific execution of a contract for a tract of land sold to J. Chalmers dec'd. by John H. Woodley & the facts are - that Woodley was to convey to Chalmers the tract of land named in the deed filed in this cause, for the consideration therein named - Woodley signed a one which is in his own handwriting, attested by two witnesses & signed by his wife - the relinquishment was regularly taken and the deed was filed in the clerks office to await the acknowledgment of Woodley - By an accidental mistake the deed was allowed to remain in the office until Chalmers & Woodley died - the deed was by Woodley's file in this suit - Chalmers took possession of the land, paid the money when the deed was made and possession has continued with Chalmers from 28 day 1838 when the deed was made up to his death - soon after which a division of Chalmers lands took place between a number of the Co. & Sabastopol in Estate - In regard to my slaves, I authorise my executor, in the exercise of a sound discretion, to sell such of them as he may think best and to divide the balance not sold equally among my Children, taking care to do as much Justice as is practicable in said division - My executor will sell the rest of my estate not hereinbefore mentioned, as early as practicable, as I do not wish my family kept together any longer after my death than is absolutely necessary - until my Children shall have guardians, my executor is desired to make such advancements as he may think prudent, charging each child with the sums so advanced, for I again express & wish it understood that all are to fair equally in the division of my estate, except, that my son James is to have the addition of Two hundred dollars so as aforesaid given to him - Since the above was written and before I signed it, I caused the sum of five hundred dollars to my son James to be changed to two hundred dollars, as a separate and independent legacy - Given under my hand and seal this 19th of September 1846
