The answer of Henry Chapman to a Bill for V. L. & Co. - by Chapman Committee of Charles Edwards -

This is in answer to as much of said Bill as he is advised it is material for him to answer, that it is true, as is alleged that he has qualified as a son of Thomas J. Edwards, and says no objection to the passage of said Bill & having and not being true as in or by.

H. Chapman

The humble Richard B. Baker of the County of Essex, State of New York, in and for the County of Essex of and for said County, humbly complaiing, sheweth unto your honor, your Honor Hardy Chapman, Commissioner of the estate and person of one Charles Edwards a decedent so declared by the justices of the County Court of said County, and whose last estate by the Order of said County Court was committed to your Honor the said Hardy Chapman, as will appear by an open copy of the said Order, herewith filed and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill. your Honor charges that about 20 years ago, one Benjamin Edwards of the County, aforesaid departed this life intestate as he believes, that one Edwin Mottle qualified as the sole executor of Benjamin Edwards &c. that Benjamin Edwards left two children viz, Thomas J. Edwards and your Honor said ^{son} Charles Edwards - that Edwin Mottle qualified also, as the guardian to their two children (Thomas & Charles Edwards) of his intestate Benjamin Edwards, ^{as will appear by order of said County Court} that Thomas J. Edwards shortly after the age of 21, departed this life, leaving ^{in 1849} as his only heir and distributee, the said decedent Charles Edwards. he was never married. The property to which Thomas Mottle was entitled, consisted of a tract of land in the said County, with annually growing crops, a negro man and other personal estate might be left in the hands of the said son of said father, his property was removed solely from their father. One Hardy Chapman qualified as executor of Thomas J. Edwards &c, but no settlement of the transaction of Edwin Mottle either as administrator of Benjamin Edwards, or as guardian to the said children, your Honor believes, has ever taken place. That the said Charles Edwards is now as the sole heir and distributee of his brother entitled to all the estate left by the father Benjamin Edwards. That Edwin Mottle has also in the year ¹⁸⁴⁹ departed this life. and one Henry B. Mottle has qualified as his executor. That neither the said Edwin Mottle in his lifetime nor his said executor has settled the transaction of the estate of Benjamin Edwards, or of the guardianship of his said two children. your Honor charges, the interest of the said Charles requires this settlement, as well as your Honor, as his Commissioner makes it proper that it be made as speedily as possible. In as much as your Honor is without remedy save in this Court to pray that Henry B. Mottle executor of the last will and testament of Edwin Mottle &c, and Hardy Chapman adm'r of Thomas J. Edwards &c may be made parties defendant to this bill and be compelled to answer the same. That this Court will order that the said H. B. Mottles executor as aforesaid, render before a Commissioner of the Court, an account of the transactions of the late Edwin Mottle in his administration of Benjamin Edwards Great 1st. State whatever you may know, of the boarding, supporting or schooling of Thomas J Edwards & Charles Edwards, nephews of Benjamin Edwards by Edwin Womble deceased ~~father~~

Ans. I know they both boarded with him for several years -

Thomas was boarding with him at the time of his death in 1848 - about June I had been for five or six years previous to his death - they both went to board with Edwin Womble when they left the family of their Uncle Sada Edwards with whom they had been boarding - Charles Edwards left the Edwin Womble's family about twelve months before his death in May 1830 -

And further this deponent saith not -

The witness Madison Edwards being first duly sworn, answers & says -

Great 1st. State whatever you may know, of the boarding supporting or schooling of Thos J & Charles Edwards nephews of Benjamin Edwards by Edwin Womble deceased -

Answer - They left Sada Edwards went to board with Edwin Womble the latter part (I think December) of 1842 -

Thomas J Edwards boarded with Edwin Womble until his death except for a short time when he lived with H. N Wom-ble in 1845 - Charles boarded with Edwin Womble until within twelve months of the death of the latter except for two years when he boarded with Robert Papeau, who had the rent of the land for his board on his paying a few dollars, I am not sure about the payment of the money - Twenty Five or Thirty dollars would be a fair board for Thomas - Charles was younger & subject to fits, his board was worth fifty dollars a year -

Edwin Womble furnished these boys with good clothes in the time with Edwin Womble or part of the time the Edwards died same manner as he clothed his own sons,

And further this deponent saith not -

The deponent Wm E Vellines being first duly sworn, answers &

Great 1st. State whatever you may know, of the board, support, or schooling of Thomas J Edwards & Charles Edwards nephews
of Benjamin Edwards by Edwin Womble -

Ans - I know that both Thomas & Charles went to board with Edwin Womble in the latter part of 1842 - I do not know the exact month, but it was after Sada Edwards' sale which was after the crops were in the year he died which was in Sept - Thomas boarded there until the time of his death except about three months with H N Womble & ~~short~~ time with Jesse Fulgham - I don't know how long he staid with Jesse Fulgham, but I think two or three months - Charles boarded with Edwin Womble to within twelve months of the death of the latter except when he boarded with R Papeau - Edwin Womble clothed the boys very well, as well as his own children -

Ans - In 1847, the negro Jonas referred to in the foregoing question hired for $25.00, of which the said nephews were entitled to one half - I do not know at what price Jonas hired since 1847, but I think $25.00 a fair hire since that day.
