To the Hon. Reck. & Deane judge of the Court of the County of St. Louis, in the City of St. Louis; Humbly complaining & praying that your orator ^{the said} Solomon Crumpler Executor of the will of the said ^{deceased} John Crumpler & his wife, do hereby certify that on the 18th day of Aug^r 1833, the said Solomon Crumpler in his lifetime executed his bond to the said John Crumpler for $505.98 on demand the 28th August 1833 - which is hereunto filed as a part of this Bill: That by assignment & transfer it became the property of the said John Crumpler & his wife and was bound by your orator, on his death, after qualifying as the said John Crumpler's executor in the year ¹⁸³³, as the copy of the order of qualification will shew. That a great number of payments have been made on the said bond, as per enclosures hereto will shew leaving a balance of $ ²⁴ still due. That the said Solomon Crumpler departed this life, in the year 1833. That James Crumpler qualified as his administrator and entered into bond, bearing date the 7th March 1833, with A. P. Mills & Chas. J. Dickson as securities, in the penalty ²⁰⁰ of $500.00 as will appear by a copy of the same herewith filed, as a part of this Bill. That the said James J. Crumpler has returned an account of his transactions before a Commissioner of this Court, and thereon appear a balance due the estate of J. ²⁴ which balance he has pretended to distribute in part, among the distributees hereafter mentioned.

Your orator states why suit was not instituted on this bond before was that Sol. Crumpler was regarded as insolvent - that he had been repeatedly sold out: and your orator after it became on his hands was made to believe from the representations of Crumpler that he was not able to pay it. Soon after his death, your orator ascertained that there was some estate - and he made known to his representative, James J. Crumpler, the existence of this debt - a fact indeed well known to him - and before he submitted his vouchers before a Commissioner, and before he paid any of the said distributees, he was again made aware of the debt - notwithstanding this knowledge he has paid, as your orator is informed, several of the distributees, whereby he alleges, he and his executor became liable for the said debt, and that also,
