Confr. & recorded

To the worshipful justice, of the County Court of Isle of Wight County:

Respectfully represents to your Honors, your petitioner, Alberta E. Brenn, that she is an unmarried woman, and in consequence of the pecuniary condition of the country, she is entirely dependent for her support upon the principal, ^{which will be the amount of the list of bonds marked X, as part of the petition.} or interest probably both, on debts due to her by individuals, the collection of which is stayed by the act to stay collection of debts passed the 2^d March 1866, and she therefore prays that this worshipful Court will ascertain through one of its Commissioners what is necessary for her support, and what amount shall be assessed on each debtor, ratably or all, according to the provision of the 2^d Section of the said stay law, and grant all other relief which may be meet & fit in the premises, &c.

Commissioner's Office.

Isle of Wight Courthouse.

June 15th 1866.

To the County Court of Isle of Wight County.

Pursuant to an order of the county court aforesaid, rendered on the 7th. day of May 1866, upon the petition of Alberta E. Wren, directing a commissioner of said court to ascertain and report to court, what amount is necessary for the support of the petitioner for the present current year: what amount shall be assessed upon each one of her debtors, assessing the whole upon all the debtors ratably, and whether the sums so assessed upon each, shall be of principal or interest, or both. Your commissioner reports to the Court, that after giving notice according to law, at the door of the courthouse, on the first day of the last term, he proceeded on this day (two days having elapsed since said notice was so posted) to take evidence as to the amount required for the support of the petitioner during the present current year, and finds that for such purpose, it will require the sum of $ 300.00

From a list of bonds filed with the petition aforesaid, & which bond your commissioner has examined & verified.
Your commissioner finds that there are due to the petitioner the following debts - The bond of Barnard J. Gray, James

Gray & Albert H. Gray for the principal sum of $ 800.00 with interest throu to the 15th June 1866 = 214.00
making the aggregate due by them . . . $ 1014.00
