This cause came on again to be heard, and the report of the Commissioner made in pursuance of an order entered herein, as of the 4th day of June 1895: to which no exception has been filed, and was argued by counsel: On consideration whereof, the Court doth order, adjudge and decree ~~that the said report be~~ confirmed, ~~and that the same be en-~~ ~~tered~~ in so far as it relates to the surviving children & that the cause remain for further report.

Smithfield, June 14th, 66

Mr Young:

Dear Sir.

In the list of bonds held by Miss Emma Jordan I omitted the date, expecting to be informed by Dony of the very month and day upon which they were assigned. She has not yet done so. They were assigned in 1860 (I think), since which time no payment has been made upon either of them.

She is very needy & requires every article of dress. She has been for some time wearing borrowed clothes. She needs every thing from a shoe & a hair pin.

She has no home.

Her relations are either not willing or not able to give her her board.

She can not get board for less than $15 or $20 per month. She will require at least $150.00 for her clothes. She requires for board $ 240.00 & for clothes $150.00 making $390.00 pr. an.
