ad litem

To the worshipful justices of the County Court of Isle of Craigh County, in Chancery sitting humbly complaining themselves unto your worships, your orator, William H. J. Wilson & Elizabeth his wife, formerly Underwood, ^{Edwin H.} ~~Edward~~ Garden & Indiana his wife, formerly Underwood, Norman Hines & Caroline his wife, formerly Underwood, & John C. Underwood, that one Charlotte Underwood was in her lifetime seized & possessed of certain real estate lying in said County of Isle of Craigh & consisting of two several parcels or tracts. One called the "Home plantation", containing by estimation 125 acres & worth about $1000.00: being the same that was devised to the said Charlotte Underwood, by her late father John Clark dec'd, as will appear by a copy of his will, bearing date the 19th July 1827, & of record in the Clerk's Office of said County, & herewith filed as a part of this bill; and the other tract or parcel called "Provinc", contains about 147 acres, & worth about $500.00 & was purchased by the said Charlotte Underwood under a deed of this Court, in the case of Wilson vs. Underwood & heirs, & being of the said two parcels or tracts so seized & possessed, she the said the said Charlotte Underwood departed this life on the 25th day of March 1860, leaving the said Elizabeth Wilson, Indiana Garden, Caroline Hines, John C. Underwood, & William J. Underwood & Josiah J. Wilson the infant son of a deceased daughter Virginia Wilson dec'd, as her heirs at law, being the children & grandsons of the said dec'd, & between whom the said real estate is divisible equally, the same having descended to them. That the said William J. Underwood & Josiah J. Wilson are infants under 21 years of age.
And your orator further state, that the aforementioned real estate is as they believe, susceptible of partition amongst the parties entitled thereto, but if it be not then they desire the same to be sold, and the proceeds distributed amongst the parties in proportion to their respective interests therein, each being entitled to 1/6th thereof. ^{than the sum of $500.00} which in value is less

In tender consideration whereof, and for as much as your orators are remediless in the premises, save by the aid of a Court of Equity, where matters of this kind are cognizable, your orators pray that the said (Petitioners) William J. Underwood & Josiah J. Wilson be made parties

Jan'y. 1866, your commission collected the amt. due on said bond, ~~to wit~~ as per statement below.
