To the County Court of Isle of Wight County.

Pursuant to a decree of the said County Court, rendered on the 4th day of June, 1869, in a suit then pending between Aldenfield & Co. Plaintiffs against E. J. Chapman admr. of Mint J. Davis & Co. defendants, directing a commissioner of the said court to take First - an account of the transactions of E. J. Chapman as administrator of Mint J. Davis & Co. Second - an account of the debts due by the said decedent, or his estate, and their dignity. Third - An account of the real estate of which said Mint J. Davis died seized and possessed and its fee simple and annual value, and Fourth - Whether the said Mollie W. Davis desires and is willing to let her dower be sold or whether she prefers it to be set apart to her. Your commissioner reports to the court that he issued notices to the parties that he had appointed the 5th day of August, 1870, to take & settle the said accounts at his office. And that he also posted notice of the time & place of taking said accounts at the Court house door of said County for two court days in succession previous to the day so appointed, and also published the same in a newspaper published in Norfolk for four weeks previous to said day so appointed.
