On Demand, I Richard J. Chapman promise to pay to Patrick Dolan, as guardian to Ken a K. Chapman the just and full sum of three hundred and fifty dollars, it being borrowed of said Patrick Dolan, to send my ward Ken a K Chapman to college - as witness my hand and seal this the 11 day of October 1859

Mr. Kilby's note.

The bond of Patrick Dole's herein referred to is not regarded by me as a fiduciary debt due by R. H.
Chapman & I have therefore allowed it as a debt of the 4th class.

A. J. Young Comr.

N. P. Young Esq
Cm

I have presented to you the claim of Patrick Dolan v. R. J. Chapman & asked that it be reported as a fiduciary debt & entitled to priority — The Law (Code p. 598) says that debts due as personal Representative, guardian &c. shall be of 3^d class —

Now how is this debt due? Is it not due as guardian, it not says so — But it may be said that Mr Chapman has no right to make such a Bond, so as to bind his ward — To this we say it is immaterial whether his ward is bound to Dolan or not; Mr Chapman by his own act declares that it is for a fiduciary purpose so far as he is concerned is estopped from saying otherwise — He has the right to make it a fiduciary debt & "as guardian" did make it thence I consider his estate is liable as such —

It makes no difference, I consider in this case, how Mr Chapman used the money or whether it was for his ward or not — he voluntarily made it, so far as he was concerned, a fiduciary debt & cannot now say (nor his admr.) that it was, not —

If you decide against me, I expect to your opinion as stated & request you will so enter & set forth a copy of the Bond in your report — a copy I send. Yrs truly

The bond due to Patrick Dole, and allowed in the account B. as Claim No. 11, is in the following words and figures, to wit: "On demand, I Richard F. Chapman promise to pay to Patrick Dole, as guardian to Terra St. Chapman the just and full sum of Three hundred and fifty Dollars, it being borrowed of said Patrick Dole to send my ward Terra St. Chapman to college. As witness my hand and seal this the 4th day October 1859."

Witness

"R. F. Chapman ^{my} Geo. (Seal)"

"Ro. M. Dole".

This bond was presented to your Commission by Geo. R. Kelly attorney for Dole, ~~who~~ asked that it be reported as a fiduciary debt and entitled to prior dignity. Your Commissioner, not viewing this debt as one which should properly be included in the third class of debts under the 25th. Act. Ch. 130 of the Code of 1860, has refused to allow it as a debt of the 3^d class, but has included it in the debts of the 4th class with the other general creditors. And to this decision, the Attorney for Dole excepts.

C.

Account C. shows that, on the 7th day of March 1865, there was a balance of $17,875:26 due from Alexander J. Villines, as administrator, to the estate of Richard F. Chapman - which balance is entirely in Confederate Money, and bonds taken by the adm. for sales of the decedent's choate estate & hire of negroes, payable in Confederate money. A list of which bonds is herewith filed as a part of this report.

Sept. 4th. 1866.

To the Circuit Court of Isle of Wight County.

In pursuance of a decree of the said circuit court, rendered on the 17th. day of May 1866, in the suit therein pending, between John E. Chapman complainant against Andrew J. Vellines administrator of Richard F. Chapman decd: sale. defendants, Your Commissioner, on the 7th. day of June 1866, issued notices to the parties, plaintiffs & defendants, that he had appointed the 9th. day of July 1866, at his office aforesaid, for taking & reporting the accounts directed to be taken by the said decree, which notices were duly executed & returned to your Commissioner. That on the day so appointed, John E. Chapman, the plaintiff, and A. J. Vellines admor. of R. F. Chapman appeared before your Commissioner, and the said administrator laid before your Commissioner vouchers & evidenced in support of the foregoing accounts marked A. & B. That your Comm^r was unable to complete the accounts required on that day, and continued them from day to day until this day, when he made up and completed the foregoing accounts, marked respectively, A. B. C. & D. (Notice to the creditors of said Richard F. Chapman decd: having been posted at the door of the Courthouse of said county, on the first day, of June & July terms of the county court of said county, last, informing them of the day appointed for making the account of all debts &c. against said decedent's estate). Account A. shows a balance of $2447.80 due from the estate of Richard F. Chapman to John E. Chapman, his late ward, who attained the age of twenty one years on the 8th. of December 1861. This balance includes interest to 18th. Oct. 1866.
