Barrandale's Admr

To the Hon. Robt. H. Baker judge of the Circuit Court of Isle of Wight County. Isle of Wight County: to wit In Chy sitting humbly complaining sheweth unto your Orator, James A. Chapman & Mary E. his wife, formerly Mary E. Barradale. That the father of your Orator Mary E. departed this life intestate in the year 1862 - leaving a widow, and the following Children Henry, Ella Sallie[2] gray (formerly Sallie Barradale), Mary E. Chapman (your orator)[3], W. J. Claudius[5] W.[6] Norborne D., and Ella V.[7] Barradale: Though as to Henry Barradale, that is uncertain. He the said Henry left his father, before his death[father], and has not been heard or has not be heard from for more than 7 years before the war; and a suit was about to be brought[1] on the presumption of Henry's death, by reason of the absence for more than Seven year, and had not been heard from within that time - The last time he was heard from he was either in Pennsylvania, or in California - Your Orator, thinks also that Henry has not been heard by any members of the family, for from now more than (over) 16 years and he is therefore dead or said, and his estate is liable to be distributed among the distributees of the said Henry who died leaving no issue, or widow or but the following brother & sisters: namely your orator, Mary E. Chapman, Sallie Gray (who is the now wife of Gilbert W. Gray), William John Barradale, Claudius W. Barradale, Norborne D. Barradale & Ella V. Barradale - the last of whom is a Minor under 21 years of age. Robt H. Whitfield has purchased or the estate of Henry Barradale dec and has urged this suit to be brought against him with a view to a settlement of this transaction as said Administrator. That W. J. Barradale is also dead - and his estate has been committed to the Sheriff of Isle of Wight County viz. Wm L. Ely.. That of the said Distributees of the said Henry Barradale, these two, Mary E. Chapman & Sallie Gray are of the whole blood, & Wm J, Norborne D, Claudius W, & Ella Barradale are of the half Blood - That. Your orators are without adequate Remedy save in this Honorable Court where matters of this sort are begun &c. To the end therefore that justice may be done in the premises, that pay that Robt H Whitfield adm of Henry Barradale and Wm L. Ely Sheriff of Isle of Wight and as such adm of Wm J. Barradale and, and Claudius W, Norborne D, Gilbert W. Gray & Ella his wife & Ella Barradale, be made parties Defendant to this Bill, and be compelled to answer the same - That the said Robt H. Whitfield as adm of said Henry Barradale and render an account of this transaction as adm thereof as aforesaid - and distributive account be made: and give such other relief which may be meet & just in the premises
