To The Honorable Geo. Brown Judge of the Circuit Court for the District of Columbia

The undersigned Commissioners appointed by a decree rendered at April term of the circuit 1882 in the suit of W. F. Bowden et al vs Sarah H.
~~Payson~~ who was Sarah H. Bowden, ^{et al} beg leave to make the following report - Having carefully viewed the premises named and described in the said suit we are of the opinion that partition intended among the devisees or heirs is impracticable if not impossible, that such a division would make them utterly worthless; that no one, two, or three of said devisees or heirs will agree to take the whole tract and pay to the other parties a reasonable price for their shares. We your commissioners do recommend a sale of said tract of land for the reasons already stated and for these further reasons 1st. The land is depreciating by reason of poor cultivation, fences going down etc. 2nd There is at present an opportunity to sell the timber and when the steam sawmills located in this neighbor hood are removed and all adjoining timber is cut there will be no sale for this timber; ^{and} the intent devisees or heirs have no other property and are in need of the proceeds of said sale for a support and education, so the nature of the land is such that interest on its cash value would exceed the rents & profits arising there from;

Honor.

That during the year 1846 their grandfather ^{Chas. L. Bowden} Elias Bowden leaving a will which was duly proved and recorded a copy of which marked Exhibit A is filed among these papers and asked to be read as a part of this bill, that the 3rd section of said will beamed to your complainants father, Elias Bowden a life estate in a certain tract of land herein after described with remainder in fee to the lawful heirs of the body of said Elias Bowden your complainants father, that during the month of April in the year 1870 said Elias Bowden departed this life leaving your complainants excepting said Matthew Joyner and Sarah F. Joyner who was Sarah F. Bowden, Mrs. W. Bowden, Catherine V. Bowden, R. L. Bowden, Lysonda Bowden

That said land cannot be divided in ten equal shares in kind, that if so divided some of the shares would be utterly worthless, that no two of said parties so far as your complainants know or are advised will take their shares together - that so far as your complainants know or are advised no one of said parties is willing to take said lands and pay for the other shares - that the said parties would be dissatisfied with such sale, that no one is willing to pay such a sum that would satisfy the other parties,

...and you not have a few
...maker?"

No, sir. I did not see him either not leave Richmond with the intention seeing either of them, and as I knew the heads of departments were rushed with pressing business I did not to bother them with such matters as mine, as well be talked over a few weeks hence.

POLITICS A SIDE-ISSUE.

"You don't mean to say that your visit to Washington had nothing to do with politics?"

"Well, not exactly that," replied the Judge with a smile, "but I went on business, and politics was a side-issue. To be frank with you I did think I would call on the chief of a certain department while there to see him with reference to an appointment which I do not care now to mention, but he, like the rest, being very much engaged, I decided to wait until a more convenient time, when I may accomplish more by another visit or a letter."

MAHONE'S VISIT.

"And you did not see the President?"

"No. I was ready to go with General Mahone and Congressman Bowden, but there was only one vacant seat in the carriage, and I yielded that to Frank Hutton, of the Post, who is an intimate friend of Mahone's. Besides I should only have called, paid my respects, and retired without any business interview, so I remained at the hotel and Mr. Hutton went."

MAHONE.

"I see it reported that Mahone's visit to the White House was of exceedingly limited duration."

"He simply went to pay his respects and had no intention of staying longer than to make a formal call. He did not stay long, it is true, but he was entirely satisfied with his visit, and this stuff about his reception being a cold one is all a cock-and-bull story."

THE POSTMASTERSHIP.

Recurring to the Richmond postmastership, Judge Waddill said that he had no idea that Mr. Cullingworth would be removed before the expiration of the four years from the time of his appointment, which he understood would be about May. He thought the aspirants were more interested in this subject than either the President or the postmaster-general. He could not pretend who would win the prize, nor would Waddill as yet commit himself to any of the aspirants. He said he did not think Harrison would be preferred over Cullingworth before he left.

The following convicts were received at the penitentiary yesterday: R. M. Nesbitt, from Loudoun county, three years for horse-stealing; Walter Crutchfield, from Richmond city, five years for house-break- ing.

The American Hotel was formally opened yesterday with a dinner at 5 o'clock. A large number of invited guests were present and were courteously entertained. The menu was appetizing, and the evening was pleasantly spent.
