To the Hon E. W. Hill

Judge of the Circuit Court of the of Washington County.

The undersigned has leave to report that the $48.10 which was in his hands as receiver under his Eighth and last report herein filed April 8th 1887 he has since paid over to Laura S. Jones the administratrix upon the estate of Bertin Jones deceased as will appear by her receipt for the same herewith filed as a part of this report.

As reported in that report the undersigned has not collected the bond for $300.00 filed with his report - due by Laura S. Jones because as stated in that report - all of the debts for which this bond was brought having been paid there was no occasion to do so and the said Laura S. Jones is administratrix upon the estate of Bertin Jones and ^{was} the guarantee of Bertin Le Jones, Walter M.
Jones, Benj M. Jones and Isaac A. Jones when this suit was in 1876 instituted all of whom except, perhaps, the last are now of full age, and all of them largely indebted to the said Lema S. Jones their mother.

The said Lema S. Jones has since the last report paid off a large amount of taxes clerk tickets &c for the estate which are herewith filed as a part of this report.

The undersigned suggests the removal of this case from the docket and allowing the said Lema S. Jones to account for the aforesaid sum of $300 - due by her for rent, less her payments, as shown by the taxes &c herewith exhibited before the Commissioner of accounts for this County as administrator, and of the estate of Bertha Jones, deceased and as guardian as aforesaid

Respectfully submitted
