Isle of Wight - County to wit -

In the Circuit - Court of Isle of Wight - County

To the Hon. C. W. Hill

Judge of the Circuit - Court - of the County of Isle of Wight - in Chancery Sitting.

Your orator, Washington Taylor and James B. ~~banister~~ Merchants of the City of Norfolk doing business under the name and style of Washington Taylor & Co. Complaining sheweth unto the Court - That G. W. Morris is a merchant of the County of Isle of Wight - Trading and doing a general merchandise business near Ferguson Wharf in that County under the name and style of G. W. Morris & Co is justly indebted to them in the sum of $215.25 - Two Hundred and Fifteen dollars and twenty five cents for bellies, oil, Meal sugar, land, hawks, bags, &c as per bills rendered and hereto attached as Exhibit - "A" and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill.

That these bills are true and correct and have been acknowledged by the said George W. Morris so to be: That they were acknowledged by the said Morris to be true and correct, ^{on Thursday February 25, 1888} to R. S. Thomas Counsel for your orator.

3 That whilst these accounts were due and owing by the said G. W. Morris to gun orators, he the said G. W. Morris on the 30th day of January 1888 granted bargained and sold to Katie L. Morris his wife "all of his stock of goods, ~~the~~ liquors, store fixtures & bar-fixtures and all notes and accounts of every kind and description contained in his store house on the land of R. W. I'Anson near Ferguson's wharf in the county of Isle of Wight; the lease held to the said store house and 200 bags of peanuts now stored with Messrs Swabney & Bunkley in Smithfield; ~~and the~~ for the ~~above~~ sum and price of eighteen hundred dollars which it is alleged was paid cash in hand as will be seen by and from a copy of the said Deed hereunto filed as Exhibit "B" and prayed to be taken as a part of this Bill.

4 That the Katie L. Morris is the wife of the said Geo. W. Morris whom he married in July last - as gun orator is informed and believes, who was Katie L. Mack the daughter of one Mack who was by profession a bricklayer and plasterer and poor in this world's goods.

5 That she did not have at the date of the said Deed the sum of eighteen hundred dollars; that she did not have it at any time prior to the said Deed and never has had it since; that she always was and is a very poor fire wretched creature the ability to raise any sum that would have been a bona fide consideration of the said Deed.

6 That the stock of goods, liquors, store fixtures and bar fixtures and the notes and accounts, the lease-hold of the said store and the lot hundred bags of peanuts mentioned and described in the aforesaid Deed of the said Geo. W. Morris granting and conveying the said goods, liquors, notes, accounts &c is all of the property known to & an estate that is owned by the said George W. Morris, and with the exception of some articles of clothing and bedding is all that said estate believes him to own and possess. The said Deed, with the exception mentioned, grants and conveys to the said Kate L. Morris all of the known and visible property of the said George W. Morris.

8 That though the said Deed of the said George L. Morris alleges that the said sum of Eighteen hundred dollars was paid cash in hand to him by the said Kate L. Morris as a consideration ^{for} of the said purchase, yet in truth and in fact

+ The said George W. Morris is by his own confession and admission guilty involved and entangled

Not one single solitary cent was paid by the said Ratu L. Morris to the said George W. Morris for the ^{said goods and paraphol} articles, aforesaid and ^{this} the said George W. Morris ~~do~~ stand and admitted to the said R. S.
Thomas as creditor for his note on Thursday, February 2^d 1888 at his aforesaid store house. The conveyance ~~therefor~~ is not upon a consideration deemed valuable in law and is ~~therefore~~ fraudulent and void. The said conveyance is without any consideration at all, and is a mere device to hinder and delay creditors and is therefore void. The purpose and object of the said deed was ^{and is} to hinder, delay and defraud his creditors by this pretended sale, and to keep the management and control of the store, heavy goods liquors &c in his own hands. +

To the end therefore that justice may be done, and in as much as his note is without remedy save in a court of Chancery where matters of this sort are alone and properly cognizable he prays that the said George W. Morris and Ratu L.
Morris may be made parties defendant to this bill and be required to an-swer the same (but his note waives an answer on oath) as fully and as particularly as if they were here and
