Not thought it was settlement of Mad: Goodlett's est. by his admr: that you wanted, and as there is no such settlement here, he could not copy it. I send and the foregoing copy of Mr. Goodlett's acct, as Exor. of Jas. A. Williams. This is the only acct, settled in County court. The last acct, settled is reported in the Pfps. in your suit of Williams (which Pfps. you know). This last act, is recorded in Co. Ct. Bk as it is in Pfps: I see no use for incurring expense of a copy. If however, you prefer a copy from Co. Ct. Book, please send it. Will see Brown by P.C. Yours truly, N. P. Young

Commissioners Office, Isle of Wight court House,
March, 8th 1882.

To the circuit court of said county.

Pursuant to a decree of the said court rendered at October term, 1881 in a suit in chancery therein depending between George T. Clark Plaintiff and Madison Gwaltney Exor. of James A. Williams dec'd. et als. defendants. directing a commissioner of said court to take and report the following accounts. First an account of the transactions of said Madison Gwaltney as Executor of James A. Williams dec'd. - Second. an account of all debts due by James A. Williams with their priority and dignity, and Third an account of the real estate of which said Jam A. Williams died seized & possessed, with its a simple and annual value - Your Commissioner reports to the Court that, on the 8th day of Dec. last he issued to the parties, plaintiffs and defendants that he had fixed upon the 18th day of Feby. 1882, to take and settle at his office aforesaid, the accounts so required that said notice was duly served - That on the day fixed upon the Exor. of said Jam A. Williams as aforesaid exhibited a statement of his transaction, together with the vouchers for his disbursements - That the Pltf: appeared by his counsel and for reasons appearing to your Commissioner, the taking of said account was continued until the date of this report: when, from the evidence and vouchers before your Commissioner, he made and completed the foregoing accounts marked A. B. & C.

Acct. A. This is of the transaction of Madison Gerritson as the Executor of Jam A. Williams, and shows a balance in his hands on the 1st day of January 1883, of $186.29. The account of said Executor heretofore settled in and reported to the County Court and confirmed, shows that the Executor had administered all the personal estate of his testator leaving a small balance due to him - This acct. was taken as prima facie correct - it not being surcharged.

The testator gave to his widow all his estate during her life after the payment of his debts. After exhausting all the personal estate, there still being debts outstanding unpaid the Executor, with the consent of the said widow sold out the land until her death and applied the rents to the support of the widow, and payment of further debts - the result of which is shown by the annexed acct. A.

Acct. B. This account is of the debts due and unpaid by the said testator James A. Williams, and shows the amount thereof to be $147.30, with interest included to the 25th of April 1887 on each, severally.

Acct. C. This account is of the real estate of the said James A. Williams deceased Hartford, and shows the fee simple Value thereof to be $4000.00 - and the annual value $200.00 -

Given under my hand as commissioner in chancery of this circuit court, the day and year first aforesaid.
